President's Veto of the Arkansas Bill—The New Tax Bill—Nominations by the President—Rebel General Pardoned—Currency Matters.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, June 20, 1868.

VETO OF THE ARKANSAS BILL.

The President sent the following message to Congress to-day:

To the House of Representatives:—I return without my signature a bill entitled "An act to admit the State of Arkansas to representation in Congress." To approve of this bill would be an admission on the part of the Executive that the "Act for the more efficient government of the rebel States," passed March 2d, 1867, and the acts supplementary thereto, were proper and constitutional. My opinion, however, in reference to those measures, has undergone no change; but, on the contrary, has been strengthened by the results which have attended their execution. Even were this not the case, I could not consent to a bill which is based upon the assumption either that by an act of rebellion of a portion of its people the State of Arkansas seceded from the Union, or that Congress may, at its pleasure, expel or exclude any State from the Union, or interrupt its relation with the government by arbitrarily depriving it of representation in the Senate and House of Representatives. If Arkansas is not a State in the Union, this bill does not admit it as a State. If, on the other hand, it is a State in the Union, no legislation is necessary to declare it entitled to representation in Congress as one of the States of the Union. The Constitution already declares each State shall have at least one representative; that the Senate shall be composed of two Senators from each State; that no State without its consent shall be deprived of its equal suffrage in that Senate; and also makes each House judge of the election returns and qualifications of its own members; and therefore all that is now necessary to secure Arkansas in all its constitutional relations to the government is a decision by each House upon the eligibility of those who, presenting their credentials, claim seats in the Houses of Congress. This is the plain and simple plan of the Constitution, and believing that had it been pursued when Congress assembled in the month of December, 1865, the restoration of the States would long since have been completed, I once again recommend that it be adopted by each House. In reference to the legislation, which I respectfully submit is not only of doubtful constitutionality, therefore unwise and dangerous as a precedent, but unnecessary, not so effective in its operation as the mode prescribed by the Constitution, involves additional delay, and from its terms must be taken rather as applicable to a territory about to be admitted as one of the United States, than to a State which has occupied a place in the Union for upwards of a quarter of a century:

The bill declares Arkansas is entitled and admitted to representation in Congress as one of the States of the Union upon the following fundamental condition:

"That the Constitution of Arkansas shall never be so amended or changed as to deprive any citizen or class of citizens of the United States of the right to vote who are entitled to vote by the Constitution herein recognized, except for punishment for crimes that are now felonies at common law, whereof they shall have been convicted, equally applicable to all inhabitants of said State; provided, any alteration of said Constitution, prospective in its effect, may be made in regard to time and place of residence of voters."

I have been unable to find in the Constitution of the United States any warrant for the exercise of the authority thus claimed by Congress, in assuming power to impose fundamental conditions on a State which has been duly admitted into the Union on an equal footing with the original States in all respects whatever. Congress asserts the right to enter a State as it may be a territory, and to regulate the highest prerogative of a free people, the elective franchise. This question is reserved by the Constitution to the States themselves, and to concede to Congress the power to regulate this subject would be to reverse the fundamental principle of the Republic, and to place in the hands of the Federal Government a power which is a creative of a sovereignty which justly belongs to States or the people, the true source of all political power, by whom our federal system was created and to whose will it is subordinate.

The bill fails to provide in what manner the State of Arkansas is to signify its acceptance of the fundamental condition which Congress endeavors to make unalterable and irrevocable; nor does it prescribe the penalty to be imposed should the people of the State amend or change particular portions of the Constitution, which it was one of the purposes of the bill to perpetuate. But as to the consequence of such action as leaves them in uncertainty and doubt, when the circumstances under which this Constitution has been brought to the attention of Congress are considered, it is not unreasonable to suppose efforts will be made to modify its provisions, especially those in respect to which this measure prohibits any alteration.

It is seriously questioned whether the Constitution has been ratified by a majority of persons who, under the act of March 2d, 1865, and acts supplementary thereto, were entitled to registration and to vote upon that issue. Section tenth of the schedule provides that "no persons disqualified from voting or registering under this Constitution shall vote for candidates for any office, nor be permitted to vote for the ratification or rejection of the Constitution at the polls herein authorized." Assumed to be in force before its adoption, in disregard of a law of Congress the Constitution undertakes to impose upon the electors other and further conditions.

The fifth section of the eighth article provides "that all persons before registering or voting must take and subscribe to an oath," which among others contains the following clause: "That I accept the civil and political equality of all men, and agree not to attempt to deprive any person or persons on account of race, color or previous condition of any political or civil right, privilege or immunity enjoyed by any other class of men." It is well known that a very large portion of the electors in all the States—if not in all, in a majority—do not believe in or accept the practical equality of Indians, Mongolians or negroes with the race to which they belong. If the voters in many of the States of the North and West were required to take such an oath as a test of their qualifications, there is reason to believe that a majority of them would remain from the polls rather than comply with such degrading conditions. How far and to what extent this test oath prevented the registering of those who were qualified under the laws of Congress it is impossible to know; but that such was its effect, at least to overcome the small and doubtful majority in favor of the Constitution, there can be no reasonable doubt. Should the people of Arkansas, therefore, desiring to regulate elective franchise so as to make it conform to the institutions of a large proportion of the States of north and west, and modify the provisions referred to in the fundamental condition, what is the consequence? Is it intended that a denial of representation shall follow? If so, may we not have at some future day a recurrence of the troubles which have so long agitated the country? Would it not be the part of wisdom to take for our guide the Federal Constitution rather than to resort to measures which, looking only to the present, may in a few years renew in an aggravated form strife and bitterness caused by legislation which has proved to be so ill-timed and unfortunate. ANDREW JOHNSON.

WASHINGTON, June 20, 1868.

NOMINATIONS BY THE PRESIDENT.

The President to-day sent to the Senate the following nominations: Wm. W. Moore, (who is the Conservative President of the Board of Aldermen,) to be Postmaster of Washington, in place of Sayles J. Bowen, whose commission has expired; Andrew J. Moulder, Surveyor General of California; Jno. L. Trainer, Assessor of Internal Revenue for the Fifth District, and Thomas S. Pettit, Assessor for the Second District of Kentucky.

CURRENCY MATTERS.

The fractional currency printed for the week amounts to $531,000; U. S. notes, $160,000; fractional currency shipped, $527,922; notes shipped, $129,618, National Bank notes issued, $179,971; amount in circulation, $299,943,053; fractional currency destroyed, $503,181.

General Spinner, U. S. Treasurer, was to-day able to attend business, having been poorly all week.

THE NEW TAX BILL.

The tax bill reported to the House to-day fixes the tax on whisky at sixty cents. Finer qualities of tobacco are reduced from forty to thirty-two cents. There is not much change on other kinds. The bill is long, embracing the administrative sections on these subjects contained in the tax bill heretofore reported.

REBEL GENERAL PARDONED.

The President has pardoned H. Heth, who was a Major-General in the rebel army, upon the recommendation of Gen. Schofield and others.

PRIVATE RECEPTION BY GEN. GRANT.

Gen. Grant gave a private reception to Minister Burlingame and suite at his residence this evening.

WASHINGTON, June 21, 1868.

ENTERTAINMENTS TO THE CHINESE.

The Chinese Embassy spent last evening with Gen. Grant, at his residence. Among the guests present were General Scofield, Secretary of War, and lady, Ministers of England, France, Russia, Prussia, Greece and Mexico, Hon. Reverdy Johnson, Minister to England, Speaker Colfax, General Emory, Commanding the Department of Washington, General Grant and Staff, and other military officers, together with a number of ladies. Mrs. and Miss Grant entertained the distinguished visitors. On leaving the residence of General Grant the Embassy proceeded to the residence of Chief Justice Chase, where they were entertained by the Chief Justice and his daughter. The Judiciary, Cabinet, Army and Navy were also represented.

FORTIETH CONGRESS.

Effort to Call up the Colorado Bill—Rights of American Citizens Abroad and Alabama Claims—President's Veto of the Arkansas Bill—The Bill Passed Over the Veto by the House—Whisky and Tobacco Tax Bill Reported—Kentucky Contested Election Case.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, June 20, 1868.

SENATE.

Mr. WILSON, from the Military Committee, reported with amendment the joint resolution to settle the claims of the State Militia of Missouri, called out to repel the invasion of Sterling Price.

The bill establishing terms of the United States District Court of Illinois at Cairo in March and October passed.

Mr. YATES presented a petition that Congress establish a Republican form of Government. Referred to Committee on Judiciary.

Mr. HARLAN moved to take up the bill in relation to the Rock Island bridge.

Several Senators objected on account of the sparse attendance to-day.

Having been laid aside for the consideration of the pension bill, Mr. YATES endeavored to call up the bill to admit Colorado, saying the Committee had reported it with amendments to which nobody could object, to send the matter back to the people with the condition of the adoption of the XIVth amendment, before admission. Objection was again made on the grounds above mentioned, and he withdrew the motion.

The joint resolution authorizing the turning over of certain distilled spirits to the Surgeon General for the use of the army hospitals passed.

Mr. SUMNER called up the resolution in relation to the treatment of colored persons on railroads from Washington to Baltimore, instructing the Committee on the District of Columbia to consider if any further legislation is needed in that connection. He said a change had taken place on the road, the managers having concluded to treat all persons alike, and there was now no occasion for inquiry. He consequently withdrew the resolution.

Mr. SUMNER called up the joint resolution to carry into effect a decree of the Southern District Court of New York in the case of the British steamer Labaun, appropriating $13,122,31 as the value of the vessel, five thousand and upwards for cargo, to the respective owners, illegally captured during the war.

Mr. CONNESS desired to call attention to the alacrity with which the Senator reported bills for the relief of British citizens, and his delay in acting on the resolution in regard to outrages on American citizens abroad, which he had long ago assured him (Mr. Conness) would receive the immediate attention of the Committee on Foreign Affairs. He had lately seen in the public prints that the Committee had resolved to postpone the subject until next session by reason of the influence of Secretary Seward and the Diplomatic Corps. He (Mr. Conness) now gave notice he should move at an early day to take up that bill for action.

Mr. SUMNER stated he had never had any conversation with Secretary Seward on the subject, and it was equally untrue that any diplomatic influence had been brought to bear on the Committee. The Committee had already had the bill under consideration three times, and were no more wanting in interest in protecting the rights of American citizens abroad than Mr. Conness.

Mr. CONNESS said Mr. Sumner had evaded the whole question. He was always ready to jump up and present a petition when an outrage was committed on our citizens' rights here under our eyes, but he had no heart for the hundreds of his fellow-citizens who were rotting in foreign prisons.

Mr. STEWART would never consent to pay for any British ships until the Alabama claims were settled.

The bill then went over.

Under the special order the Senate went into Executive session, and shortly after adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The resolution authorizing a change in the mail service between Helena and Fort Abernethy, Montana, was, after debate, passed.

The bill extending the patent for improvement in woolen printing machines, if approved by Patent Commissioners, was passed.

Mr. PRICE, from the Committee on the Pacific Railroad, reported back the Senate bill relative to the reports of railroad companies, requiring reports to be made to the Secretary of the Treasury, which passed, with an amendment.

Mr. COOK, from the Committee on Elections, called up the contested election case from the Ninth Congressional District of Kentucky of McKee against Young, the Committee reporting Young, who holds a certificate, was not duly elected, but that McKee, contestant, was duly elected; that Young has furnished aid and countenance to the rebels and is not entitled to take the oath of office as Representative.

Mr. COOK proceeded to argue the case in support of the position of the Committee, but was interrupted by a message from the President vetoing the bill for the admission for Arkansas to representation.

The message having been read, the SPEAKER stated the question to be "will the House, on reconsideration, agree to the passage of the bill?"

Mr. STEVENS, of Pa., moved the previous question, and it was seconded. The vote resulted, yeas 111, nays 31—a strict party vote, the Speaker voting in the affirmative.

The SPEAKER announced that two-thirds having on reconsideration voted in the affirmative, the bill had passed the House, and would be transmitted, with the objections of the President, to the Senate for its action.

Mr. PAISLEY introduced a bill relating to the Covington and Ohio Railroad and its establishment as a post road. Referred to the Committee on Roads on Canals.

The House resumed the consideration of the Kentucky contested election case, and Mr. COOK continued the argument in support of the resolutions.

Mr. KERR member of the Committee on Elections, opposed the resolutions and replied to the argument of Mr. Cook.

At a quarter past three Mr. KERR yielded the floor to Mr. SCHENCK, who reported from the Committee on Ways and Means a bill to change and more effectually secure the collection of internal taxes on distilled spirits and tobacco, and to amend the tax on banks. He said by order of the House he had a right to proceed with the bill to the exclusion of all other business, but he would not ask to go on with it now. He wished only to have it printed and gave notice he would call it up on Monday at two o'clock.

Mr. COOK then gave notice he would move the previous question on the Kentucky contested election case.

Mr. BANKS gave notice as soon as the tax bill was disposed of he would ask the House to consider the subject of the treaty for the purchase of Russian America.

After some further discussion it was agreed to take a recess till 11 o'clock Monday, when, after an hour's debate, the question be taken on the Kentucky election case.

Adjourned.

The Saengerbund at Chicago.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CHICAGO, June 20.—A meeting of the Saengerbund was held at Wabash Avenue Rink this morning for business purposes. Various reports of expenses incurred and contributions received were read and approved. The subject of the formation of an Allgemerner Nor Iamerickaniser Saengerbund was discussed at considerable length. A motion that nine delegates, one from each of the following cities, Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Louisville, Cincinnati, St. Louis, Chicago and Milwaukee, be appointed to draw up a plan for the organization of the Bund and to submit the same to the next meeting was adopted.

A motion that the next festival be held at Cincinnati in 1870 was also adopted.

A grand matinee was given this afternoon. To-night three balls are in progress at Turners', Uhlrich's and Metropolitan Halls.

The programme for to-morrow, which will end the festival, contemplates a picnic at Wright's Grove, immediately north of the city limits, for which very extensive preparations have been made. The different associations will report in front of Uhlrich's Hall at eight o'clock in the morning, and march to the grove. At the close of the day, the singers will return and spend the evening at various halls, thus closing the festival.

The Walking Match—Weston the Winner.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

BOSTON, June 20.—In the walking match between Weston and Topley, at the conclusion of twenty-four hours, Weston having walked seventy-five miles, refused to walk any more. Topley kept on and completed his seventy-fourth mile and then stopped for rest. Soon afterwards Mr. Goodwin, Weston's backer, came out and announced that Topley had been drawn and the judges declared Weston the winner, giving as his time for seventy-five miles twenty-three hours, fifty-seven minutes and forty-five seconds, and Topley's time for seventy-four miles, twenty-four hours, fifty-seven minutes and thirty seconds.

GREAT BRITAIN.

HOLIDAY—NATIONAL ANNIVERSARY.

LONDON, June 20.—To-day, being the anniversary of the accession of Her Majesty Queen Victoria to the throne of England, has been observed as a holiday in this metropolis, and had also been duly observed by appropriate salutes throughout the realms of the British Government. The city has been gaily decorated with flags and streamers, and the naval vessels, as well as the mercantile marine of all nations, have been profuse in the display of colors. Immense crowds filled the streets, all intent mainly upon witnessing the grand review of the volunteers by the Queen and royal family at Windsor, towards which point they have been wending their way on numerous railway trains. The day has been made the especial occasion for a grand review of the regular troops at Windsor Park, where for several days they have been arriving in large numbers from different points. Salutes were fired from Windson Castle and other prominent Government places at sunrise, noon and sunset. The barracks at Windsor were gaily festooned and decorated, and troops were in full dress uniform for review. The weather was comparatively fine, although the morning was threatening, which had the effect of preventing many thousands from attending. With the exception of a slight shower there was nothing to mar the splendor of the parade. The troops in line numbered 27,000 of the different arms, and while being reviewed by Her Majesty, her brilliant suite of Generals and officers of the royal household, presented a scene of grandeur and enthusiasm seldom and if ever before witnessed in this country. After marching past and saluting the Queen and royal cortege, the troops paid a marching salute to the obelisk of the Grand Jubilee which took place in 1820, then defiled over a pontoon bridge laid across the Thames by the Royal Engineers, where they were dismissed. The throng was immense and the Queen and royal family were greeted with marked enthusiasm. The day was concluded with festivities and re-unions by the civil and military organizations.

A special states that Gen. Napier had arrived at Alexandria, accompanied by a son of Emperor Theodorus.

THE IRISH CHURCH BILL.

LONDON, June 21.—The defeat of the Irish Church Appointment Suspension bill in the House of Lords is considered certain, but it is believed the majority against the bill will be greatly reduced in consequence of the abolition of proxies.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Pittsburgh Teachers' Association—Monthly Meeting.

A regular monthly meeting of the Pittsburgh Teachers' Association was held on Saturday morning, in the chapel of the Central High School, corner Sixth and Wood streets. The attendance was not as large as usual on account of a teachers' examination taking place in another part of the city at the same hour.

The Assyciation came to order at half-past ten o'clock, Professor Dean presiding, and Rev. Wm. M. Young, of the Union Baptist Church, leading in prayer.

The Secretary, Mr. Irwin, read the minutes of the preceding meeting, which were approved.

Prof. S. A. Neale, of the Colored Schools, read selections from modern standard authors, after which a general discussion on the teachers' work was opened by Prof. L. H. Eaton, followed by Professors McClymonds and Patterson, and closing with an address of considerable length by Rev. Mr. Young.

On motion, a vote of thanks was tendered the reverend gentleman for his able and eloquent address, and the meeting adjourned.

Indexing Records.

MESSRS. EDITORS: As the GAZETTE is recognized to be the official paper of this county, I desire the use of your columns for the purpose of ascertaining something in regard to the contract for Indexing the Old Records. The contract for this important work was some weeks ago awarded to parties at $2,21 per page, but the court, on presentation of contract for confirmation, held it over under advisement, for the purpose of examining the work to be done, and the bids, when it was ascertained that responsible parties, whose proposals were rejected, agreed to perform the work for little more than half the amount, thereby effecting a saving of several thousand dollars to the taxpayers. The matter, however, is still held in abeyance, for what purpose we do not know, unless it be that the Commissioners feel indisposed to urge the matter further. In justice to the parties interested, as well as the public at large, the question should be decided and the contract either be confirmed or rejected. INDEX.

"Conservative Soldiers."

The Leader, excellent authority in such matters, yesterday contained the following item:

"Three or four 'Conservative' soldiers and sailors held a mass meeting last night at the St. Charles Hotel. They were so ashamed of the meagre attendance that they adjourned to an eight by ten room up stairs, and after carefully excluding reporters, passed a long string of resolutions, and got up a list of delegates, which will appear in the 'Conservative' papers hereafter. Industrious inquries failed to secure the names of any known soldiers present, and we are inclined to think the meeting a myth; but for all that the proceedings will appear, duly 'cooked up.'"

The Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad.

The Finance Committee of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, we learn, have ratified the action of the officers of that company relative to the subscription of $1,000,000 to the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad Company and the stock has been subscribed. In addition to the one million, Mr. Hopkins, one of the Committee, subscribed $60,000, and Mr. Garrett, the President, $30,000, individual subscription. This looks like business, as Messrs. Hopkins and Garrett are both practical railroad men.

Alleged Robbery.

James Barker, a stranger in the city, alleges that he was robbed in the Nonpareil saloon, in the cellar at the corner of Liberty and St. Clair streets. He states that he went into the saloon to get something to eat, and having travelled for some days, was tired and fell asleep. When he awakened it was past midnight, and, as he says, he discovered that he had beer robbed of a valuable dimond pin, a good silver watch, and his pocket book containing one hundred and twenty dollars in money.

Grand Church Festival.—The ladies and members of the Manchester Presbyterian Church, corner of Market and Franklin streets, Allegheny, are engaged in making liberal preparations for a grand strawberry and ice cream festival to be opened to-morrow evening in the church, which has just been thoroughly renovated. We can safely promise all who attend a pleasant evening, as nothing will be left undone to secure the enjoyment of visitors. The cars of the Manchester Railway pass within a short distance of the church every few minutes. The proceeds of the festival will be devoted to the benefit of the church.

Arrested for Stealing Iron.—Three boys were arrested on Saturday and taken before Mayor Drum, charged on oath of an employee of the Fort Wayne Railroad, with stealing iron. Large quantities of iron have disappeared lately from the Company's yards, and they have been keeping a sharp lookout for the thieves. On Saturday the boys were discovered wheeling away a load of the iron, and were at once arrested. After a hearing of the case, they were held in the sum of three hundred dollars bail for their appearance at Court.

Market in Birmingham.—There is a project on foot to establish a Saturday evening market in Birmingham, in order that the citizens may be supplied with fresh vegetables for Sunday, and as an inducement for market men to attend the market the authorities have consented to give the use of the market house free of rent.

Strawberry Festival.—The young ladies of the First Baptist Church, Fourth street, between Grant and Ross, will hold a strawberry and ice cream festival in that church to-morrow (Tuesday) evening.

Affairs in Georgia.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ATLANTA, June 20.—The Governor elect has just arrived from Washington, and it is rumored the Legislature will be convened on the fourth of July. Rains have been falling during the last few days, and the crops are promising.

A Bankrupt Sentenced.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CANANDAIGUA, June 20.—In the United States Circuit Court, Allen P. Hewett has been convicted of secreting his property from his assignee in bankruptcy, and sentenced to the Penitentiary for one year and eleven months.

—St. Thomas advices to June 15th state a band of slaves revolted on St. John's Island, shot their overseer, maltreated the police and fled to Tortola, where they were overtaken by a squad of soldiers and two of them made prisoners.

DROWNED.

BY CHALMERS GARVIE.

I.
Ships are tossing at sea,
And ships sail in to the windy cliffs of the shore;
But the ship that is dearest to me
Will never come in with the tide—
Will ripple in the bay no more,
Riding in with the tide.

II.
Under the froth of the foam,
And the yeasty surge and the shuddering gusts of rain,
Lies the lad who will never come home,
His white face hid in the sand;
He neither has care nor pain
Under the sea-weed and sand.

III.
Down by the reefs and the shells,
Far down by the channels that furrow the dolorous deep,
Where the torn sails rise with the swells
And swing in the pulse of the sea,
He is only sleeping a sleep,
Down in the sorrowful sea.

IV.
Above him the wreck and the drift,
The red-lit east and the dark, sad glow in the west,
The currents that change and shift,
And the rain-blown face of the storm:
There is nothing but silence and rest
Under the beat of the storm.

V.
Tangled in rigging and ropes,
And fenced by the wreck of spar and the ruin of mast,
The purple sea-plant gropes
And wanders over my dead;
He shall waken and rise at last
When the sea gives up its dead.

VI.
So in the dark and dawn,
In the gloom of keels and the shadow of some-bound ships,
My mariner slumbers on,
While I am weary and forlorn,
With a weary song on my lips
Out of my heart forlorn.

—Mrs. Keckley, the book maker, read part of her abominable book in New York on Tuesday.

—The Marquis De Caux won $200,000 on the French Derby. Patti ought to make him stop now.

—Dunkirk fisheries are excellent this year and those engaged in the business are making money.

—The table talk of Napoleon the Great is the name of a new book announced as in press in Boston.

—Brignoli was hissed again last week. A little of this sort of thing every week should be good for him.

—Dr. Bellows' book of travels in Europe and the East, has been translated into French and German.

—A New York paper has a new motto for a stage driver, which is classically apt. Jam forte in omnibus.

—"Mazzolemi's success in Paris is pronounced," says an exchange. We should like to know by whom?

—A whole family was poisoned in Cincinnati last week, by using milk which had been kept too long in tin cans.

—There is a larger proportion of Jews in Poland and a smaller in Scandinavia than in any other parts of Europe.

—The New Orleans papers deny the fact of the reappearance of yellow fever there, but two or three corpses are dead proofs of it.

—They are so unused to liberty in the Crescent City, that some of the street guideboards have the name spelled Libertay.

—The American fashion of gentlemen carrying umbrellas to protect them from the sun has been favorably received in Paris.

—The Boston Post has taken to quoting very freely from the Cincinnati Commercial. The two papers are beginning to agree politically.

—Poughkeepsie is greedy; she expects to have General Logan, Judges Bingham and Boutwell and Senator Nye, all for Fourth of July orators.

—Of all the stray poems going about the country, we think that the sweetest by far, is the "Little Fair Soul" which we printed some weeks ago.

—Mack, the correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial is about to join the editorial corps of the Cincinnati Enquirer which is a rabidly Democratic paper.

—Some one has been foolish enough to offer Bowdoin College, Me., $30,000 for a portrait of—no one knows who, painted by Van Dyke, but in bad repair.

—Some merchants in New York have combined together to raise a fund with which to purchase sewing machines for the widows or orphans of soldiers.

—Vallandigham calls himself an honest passer by. He also speaks of a newspaper as a little yellow dog. Certainly Val. had a drop to much of liquid distilled bliss.

—Dr. Collier, of Chicago, objects to women's clubs. Unless Dr. Collier is a women, we can't see what business it is of his, as long as his wife does not belong to them.

—Ludwig, of Bavaria, is said now to be engaged to be married to one of the Archduchesses of Russia. How the Churches of Greece and Rome will combine is now the question.

—There is a tree near Columbia, Tennessee on which two murderers have been hung and one suicide hung himself. Of course the tree has an evil reputation in the neighborhood.

—What with politics and pleasure Chicago has been so thronged with Conventions this year that, a stranger might imagine it to be an asylum for the care of Convention-struck humanity.

—The Worrell sisters have made so much money that they are about to retire. Their father has bought a magnificent country seat on Long Island, and the whole family is to move there in the autumn.

—A wagon full of little boys on their way to a Sabbath School pic nic was run away with the other day. All the little boys were spilled out and four were badly hurt. Moral—Beware of Sabbath school pic nics.

—Most of the second and third rate actors of the country are going over or have gone to Europe. No one ever hears of them while there, but they come back with "wide spread European reputations." But sometimes they are so wide spread as to be very thin and flimsy.

—A thousand recruits for the papal army are now being raised in this country. It seems that the Pope is much troubled with brigands, and that he wants Americans to fight them, because of course they must be used to Indian fighting and can apply their knowledge to the barbarians of Italy.

—The Philadelphia Age thinks that the whole fabric of Republican Government is rotten and tottering to decay. We expect daily to see the Age with "a bas la Republique" for its motto and some aristocratic ex-slaveholding descendent of the Howards or the Cavendishes anointed as King.

—A "reliable" snake story comes from Kentucky, of a woman frightened by a snake and the subsequent birth of two creatures, human from the waist downward, and above serpents. The "trustworthy gentleman" adds that they are kept in separate cages and fed with milk from a spoon.

—A Southern correspondent of a Paris paper says that Johnson has proved Grant to be a liar, and furthermore says that no gentleman in South Carolina would associate with him. This must mean that there are no gentlemen in South Carolina; a fact which must, of course, be blamed on Congress and the Radicals.

—It is only 93 years since the Battle of Bunker Hill was fought, and yet it is about as much a matter of ancient history as the destruction of Babylon or the battle of Thermopylae. To be sure those of the 104 ers whose memory fails not can recollect it, but they were, until very recently, so rare as scarcely to have a right to be counted in.

—A wondefully formed child, born near Pulaski, Tenn., is now on exhibition in Nashville. Nature has furnished it with four legs, four feet, twenty-one toes and but one body, being one child, healthy and symmetrical, down to the hips, thence down it is two distinct, well-developed children, with every organ, bone and muscle that belongs to two persons.

—Mr. L. D. Rodocanachi, of New York, has been visiting Crete; he returned a short time ago to New York, and says that the spirit of the valiant Cretans is still unbroken, and that there are 50,000 of them under arms. Over 75,000 women and children have left the Island and gone to Greece, and about 70,000 are living in caves on the Island subsisting, when the English and American supplies fail them on herbs and roots.

AMONG Leon Gazlan's posthumous papers was found an essay on the characteristics of women, which will not add to his popularity among American ladies. Just read this outrageous paragraph: "A French woman will love her husband if he is either witty or chivalrous; a German woman, if he is constant and faithful; a Dutch woman, if he does not disturb her ease and comfort too much; a Spanish woman, if he wreaks terrible vengeance on those who are under her displeasure; an Italian woman, if he is dreamy and poetical; a Danish woman, if he thinks that her native country is the brightest and best, and happiest country on earth; a Russian woman, if he despises all Westerners as miserable barbarians; an English woman, if he succeeds in ingratiating himself with the royal court and the aristocracy; an American woman, if—he has plenty of money."

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, June 20, 1868.

Business, as is to be expected at this particular season of the year, has been very dull during the past week, and there is but little prospect of any immediate immediate improvement. Buyers are restricting their purchases as much as possible in anticipation of a still further depreciation in values, while sellers, on the other hand, are anxious to realize, and, as a general thing, concessions are willingly made whenever there is an opportunity to make a sale. The weather, although oppressively hot, is all that could be desired for the growing crops, and the indications for a good harvest were never better.

GRAIN—Owing to the fact that there is but little Wheat offering, the demand is rather better, and while the market is a shade firmer, prices are unchanged; prime Red may be quoted at $2,30 and 5 to 8c higher for White. Oats dull, notwithstanding the arrivals are light; sale of 200 bushs at 77c, and 200 do at 78c—on wharf. Corn is quiet, and while there is a good local demand for prime Ear, Shelled is very dull; we quote the latter at $1 to $1,05, and the former at $1,07 to $1,08. Rye is dull and nominal at $1,50. Nothing doing in Barley.

BUTTER—There is a very fair local demand, and we can report sales of prime fresh packed at 26 to 28.

EGGS—Continue dull, and with continued liberal arrivals, prices have still further declined; 25c may be regarded as the ruling price, though we had a small sale reported at 23c.

POTATOES—The supply of old stock is being pretty well reduced, but the same is true of the demand; Peach Blows, for small lots in store, at $1,25 per bushel. New crop Potatoes, $6,50 to $7,00 per bbl, as to quality.

DRIED FRUIT—Continues very dull, and as the stock is pretty large, holders are very anxious to realize and close out; we continue to quote at 6 to 7c for Apples, and 11 to 12c for Peaches.

FLOUR—While there is no improvement to note in the demand and the market is dull, prices a re not quotably lower. Standard Spring Wheat brands are worth $9,50 in Chicago, and cannot, therefore, after adding 70c per barrel freight, be sold for less than $10,25 to $10,50 here. Winter Wheat may be quoted at $11 to $11,50, and $14 to $15 for fancy brands. Rye Flour, $9,50 to $9,75.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is quiet but steady; we quote at 13¼ to 13½ for Shoulders; 15½ to 16 for Ribbed, and 17½ to 18c for Clear Sides; 17½ to 18c for common Hams; 18¼ to 19c for Family Hams, and 19½c to 20c for Canvassed Sugar Cured Hams. Lard, 18 to 18¼c for prime kettle rendered. Dried Beef, 21 to 22c for plain and canvassed. Mess Pork, $28 to $28,50.

LARD OIL—Unchanged at $1,23 to $1,25 for No. 2, and $1,43 to $1,45 for No. 1.

HAY—Is dull and nominally unchanged as $15 to $20 per ton.

SEEDS—Flaxseed is scarce and in demand at $2,50 to $2,55, while Clover and Timothy are seldom mentioned.

SALT—Is dull and nominally unchanged; $1,75 to $1.80 to the trade, and $2 for small lots in store.

RIVER NEWS.

The river was about stationary yesterday with thirty inches in the channel by the Mcnongaheta marks. We had quite a rain storm on Saturday evening, and it has been threatening rain ever since. Business is almost entirely suspended at the landing, and is likely to remain so while the river is so low.

The Leonidas left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Tuesday night, and the McCullough was advertised to follow on Sunday.

The R. C. Gray reshipped for Louisville freight on the St. Marys at Cincinnati and laid up.

The old Belvidere, formerly the Texas, a Mississippi towboat, but latterly a freight and passenger boat between Galveston and New Orleans, stranded on Pass Cavallo bar on the 3d inst. She had 375 head of beeves, and struck heavily on the bar. To save the steamer the cattle were driven overboard. The swam ashore on Saluria, or were drowned in the surf. The larger part having been disposed off, she succeeding in getting back inside, and in a very leaky condition reached Indianola.

A St. Louis dispatch, under date of Friday, says: It is believed the Galatea is too slow, and can not be a remunerative enterprise. She and the Maggie Hays have arrived.

Shipments are considerable to the Arkansas, but principally by the Memphis packets. The Minnie, which goes through to Fort Smith, has been unable to get half a cargo in two weeks. Through boats will probably abandon the trade.

The St. Louis, Miami and Lexington Packet Company will next season adopt the restaurant plan of victualing passengers. It will be introduced on the Chester packet Adam Jacobs, in a few days.

The steamer Laura, seized at St. Louis some months ago for carrying contraband spirits, has been ordered to be sold by the United States District Court at that place.

The St. Louis Republican, of Friday, says: A wellk-nown steamboatman suggests that the masters of steamboats hereafter use wood entirely for fuel for their boats when below Cairo instead of coal, as is now generally the case, arguing that by so doing the money that is paid out by steamboats for coal and sent to Pittsburgh will be kept in the country, and afford the means of earning a livelihood to a large number of men.

We clip the following items from our Cincinnati exchanges of Friday: The sudden rise in the Licking and Ohio rivers swept off some one hundred coal barges, containing one million bushels of coal, together with a large lot of saw logs out of Licking river. Captain Ford, of the towboat Charley Bowen, during the storm yesterday morning, accidentally fell into a coal barge and was seriously injured. The colors of the steamers at the levee were displayed at half-mast yesterday, owing to the death of Mr. George Johnson, a veteran river mate.

The St. Marys arrived from Pitttsburgh. She has considerable Louisville freight, and leaves for that point. She will not go back to Pittsburgh, but will probably go below the falls to stay during the low water season.

The R. C. Gray came in from Pittsburgh, in command of Captain Ike Whittaker, formerly of the Guidon.

Captain U. B. Piersel, formerly of the Louisville, but later of the Louisiana, and a popular steamboatman, will have charge of the office of the Swallow while she is in port; but it is understood that after she leaves here he will have command of the boat, and Captain McCarty will go in the office.

A St. Louis telegram, under date of Thursday, says: The Galetea has not arrived yet, and does not seem to be getting along very well in the muddy Mississippi. All upward boats have passed her.

The following item is from the Vicksburgh Times: We have heard a great deal said about taking up the Atlantic's pegs, but no boat has done it—there they are, at Hard Times Landing, three hundred and sixty-five miles above New Orleans. What boat can move them a mile or two further up this way in a run of twenty-four hours? Then there is the run of the Princess, from New Orleans to Natchez, in seventeen hours and a half. Who wants that pait of horns now ornamenting the Natchez wharfboat?

The Dubuque Times, of Tuesday, says: It was rumored on the streets yesterday that the Northern Line Packet Company, during their late Conference in Chicago, had determined to put down the rates for freight between this port and St. Louis lower than ever, thus leaving the field open for competition. If this rumor should prove correct, the river war will soon rage fiercer than ever.

A late St. Louis paper says: It is not to be expected that business will be very brisk at this season of the year. The general trade of the river, however, is good, there being more than an average amount shipped in every direction. The business of this month compared with the same time last year is sonsiderable larger, and what is more satisfactory, promises to retain a fair degree of activity all the season. The New Orleans boats are doing better than thev have for months, while upper river packets are particularly favored with big trips of passengers which compensates for the dull freighting trade. Next month the new crops will commence moving when lively times are anticipated.

640 MILES OF THE UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD

Are now finished and in operation. Sixty miles of track have been laid this spring, and the work along the whole line between the Atlantic and Pacific States is being pushed forward more rapidly than ever before. More than twenty thousand men are employed, and it is not impossible that the entire track, from Omaha to Sacramento, will be finished in 1869 instead of 1870. The means provided are ample, and all that energy, men and money can do to secure the completion of this

GREAT NATIONAL WORK,

At the earliest possible day, will be done.

The UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY receive:

I.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of the right of way, and all necessary timber and other materials found along the line of its operations.

II.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, taken in alternate sections on each side of its road. This is on absolute donation, and will be a source of large revenue in the future.

III.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of United States Thirty-year Bonds, amounting to from $16,000 to $48,000 per mile, according to the difficulties to be surmounted on the various sections to be built. The Government takes a second mortgage as security, and it is expected that not only the interest, but the principal amount may be paid in services rendered by the Company in transporting troops, mails, &c. The interest is now much more than paid in this way, besides securing a great saving in time and money to the Government.

IV.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of the right to issue its own FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS, to aid in building the road, to the same amount as the U. S. Bonds, issued for the same purpose, and no more. The Government permits the Trustees for the First Mortgage Bondholders to deliver the Bonds to the Company only as the road is completed, and after it has been examined by United States Commissioners and pronounced to be in all respects a first-class Railroad, laid with a heavy T rail, and completely supplied with depots, stations, turnouts, carshops, locomotives, cars, &c.

V.—A CAPITAL STOCK SUBSCRIPTION from the stockholders, of which OVER EIGHT MILLION DOLLARS have been paid in upon the work already done, and which will be increased as the wants of the Company require.

VI.—NET CASH EARNINGS on its Way Business, that already amount to MORE THAN THE INTEREST on the First Mortgage Bonds. These earnings are no indication of the vast through business that must follow the opening of the line to the Pacific, but they certainly prove that upon such a property, costing nearly three times their amount, ARE SECURE BEYOND ANY CONTINGENCY.

FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS

The Company have abundant means in their treasury, and make no appeal to the public to purchase their Bonds, as the daily subscriptions are entirely satisfactory; but they submit that, for entire security and liberal returns, there is certainly no better investment in the market.

The Union Pacific Bonds are for $1,000 each, and have coupons attached. They have thirty years to run, and bear annual interest, payable on the first days of January and July, at the Company's Office in the City of New York, at the rate of six per cent. in gold. The Principal is payable in gold at maturity. The price is 102. At the present rate of gold, these bonds pay an annual income on their cost of NEARLY NINE PER CENT.

The Company reserve the right to advance the price of their bonds to a rate above par at any time, and will not fill any orders or receive any subscriptions on which the money has not been actually paid at the Company's office before the time of such advance.

GOLD closed in New York Saturday at 140¼.

THE adjournment of Congress is likely to be postponed until the last of July, and, even then, it may, possibly, be a recess.

CAPT. HAZZARD, the Monongahela City Postmaster, who was recently removed from office for speaking his mind about impeachment, served three years in the army and was a Captain in the Twelfth Regiment Pennsylvania Reserves.

IT IS said that the assaults of the Washington Intelligencer upon Secretary MCCULLOCH are instigated by the anti-CHASE men, as it is believed that the Secretary would manipulate his immense patronage in the interest of "the father of all greenbacks."

THE Zanesville Courier states that Hon. J. A. BINGHAM is likely to be renominated for Congress for his seventh term without opposition. The Convention sits at Cambridge, Ohio, July 2d. Republicans everywhere will welcome the re-election of this sincere patriot, eloquent orator and wise statesman.

THE new internal tax-bill reported to the House on Saturday, fixes the tax on whisky at sixty cents, reduces that on the finer kinds of tobacco from forty to thirty-two cents, and re-adopts the administrative sections of the former bill. These sections are of great importance, as it is thereby intended to reach and cure many defects in the operation of the existing laws. The bill will be the special order in the House to-day, and every day until it is disposed of.

A SUNDAY journal of this city, of Democratic sympathies, says of the "three or four conservative soldiers and sailors, who held a mass meeting," on Saturday night, at the St. Charles Hotel, that "industrious enquiries failed to secure the names of any known soldiers present," and that the three or four "were so ashamed of the meagre attendance, that they adjourned to an eight-by-ten room up stairs, excluding the reporters," and then fixed up a list of delegates and a long string of resolutions. It seems from this that recruiting for the "bummers' brigade," is as slow here as in Illinois.

THE President persists in his obstinate opposition to Southern Reconstruction, by his veto of the Arkansas bill, to be followed in due time by a similar veto of the Omnibus bill. Herein he has disappointed even his personal friends who have, up to the last moment, seemed to believe that he would allow the bill to become a law without either approval or objection. But we have had no faith in any possibility that he would forego this, as the last opportunity to place himself in position before the Democratic Convention. The message repeats his old ideas with which all are familiar, adding thereto a clear endorsement of the later Democratic doctrine of the right of those States to discard the Congressional policy as soon as they shall be admitted. The House promptly re-passed the bill over the veto, by a full party vote, and it is presumed that the Senate will do the same to-day.

THE Cincinnati Commercial, which has been regarded not only as the special organ and champion of Mr. CHASE, but has, in fact, been the only prominent journal in the West to support the political aspirations of the Chief Justice, devotes a long article in its issue of the 20th to the platform recently put forth for Mr. CHASE, "by authority." The Commercial declares that if this exposition is authoritative, it is a very material modification of the opinions formerly expressed by Mr. CHASE, virtually abandoning his former ground of universal suffrage, without any qualifications, such as a reference of the question to the States themselves would be. Of that doctrine, and of the Chief Justice, the Commercial says:

> We should regret exceedingly to know that Mr. Chase had concluded to put it in abeyance, or abandon it altogether, even for the Presidency, and cannot persuade ourselves that he would do so, even were the temptation ten-fold as great.

THE CHASE PARTY.

There are strong indications that Mr. CHASE, if not nominated by the Democracy, will run as an independent, third candidate for the Presidency. It will be remembered that, of the nine preceding elections for this office, but one, that of 1864, has seen the field confined to two candidates. That exception was due to the absorbing interest with which the pending issue of that year was regarded by the people; the question was one of Union or Disunion, and it swallowed up all others, so that no successful effort was made to bring out a third candidate. This year, however, an original Abolitionist will, unless his claims are recognized by the Democracy, re-inaugurate the old tactics with which, as a "freeerty man," he was formerly familiar, by an effort to give the contest a triangular character. While former movements of this sort made a plausible show of having some sort of principle at the bottom, the support of Mr. CHASE this year will be of a purely personal character, the whole movement, in its inception and progress thus far, being undeniably prompted by his individual aspirations for office. Presenting himself under the thin guise of a Conservative candidate, he can make no impression on the solid array of Republicans, who will support GRANT and COLFAX with an unprecedented unanimity, knowing that the Union will be preserved by the great leader who defended it so successfully in the hours of its trial. The first candidate of a great party for nearly forty years to be nominated by acclamation, without even the whisper of a competition or the suggestion of a doubt, the choice of the Chicago Convention was welcomed by the hearty acquiescence of Republicans of every shade of sentiment. No matter what differences existed upon minor points, questions of detail or upon current public measures, the great party of the Union everywhere accepted GRANT as a candidate upon whom the friends of the Union could combine, and heartily support him. They have not yet seen cause to change their opintons, nor do they expect to. Neither in Ohio, nor in any other State could be found enough "Conservative Republicans" supporting CHASE to fill an ordinary omnibus. He has absolutely forfeited the respect of his old friends, and has secured the confidence of no new supporters. The CHASE party of 1868 will be confined to the regular organization of the Democracy under a nomination from its Convention, or will, otherwise, combine the elements of dissatisfaction which that Convention is sure to leave behind it. Whether it is to be a party or a faction, which constitutes the tail of this ambitious politician, it makes little difference to Republicans who already hold an assured victory within their reach. But to the Democracy, it means everything, for it will demoralize them to adopt him and disorganize them to reject his claims. All the signs of the canvass are therefore auspicious to the cause of Republicanism, GRANT, COLFAX and the Union. So let the CHASE movement move on!

THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION.

In less than a fortnight this body will assemble in the city of New York, and proceed to nominate candidates for President and Vice President, and promulgate a platform of doctrines. As the "two-thirds rule" is still a fundamental law of that organization, and not likely to be repealed at the opening of the approaching convocation, or at all, it is not easy to forecast who will be selected as candidates. That rule was originally framed to enable the minority to control, in large measure, the choice of the majority, and it is adapted to no other end. Which faction of the party will prove to be in the majority, and which in the minority, is a problem of difficult solution; so difficult, indeed, that neither seems to feel confident of its own ascendancy.

By the formal presentation of the name of Mr. CHASE, by what claims to be the conservative portion of the party, personal differences among the radical portion seem to have been suddenly and spontaneously allayed, and only the name of Mr. PENDLETON is now heard among them as a favorite for the Presidency.

The nomination of Mr. CHASE will be an anachronism to the doctrines and purposes of the party. Indeed, his nomination is urged because it will signify and mark an abandonment of old doctrines and issues and a recognition of new principles to be advocated and objects to be attained. In other words, the Conservatives perceive, and are ready to act upon the perception, that the prosecution of the war to a successful termination, by the National Government, established, beyond all farther reasonable disputation, that interpretation of the Constitution which repels the idea that the Union is a League of Independent and Sovereign States, terminable at the pleasure of any of the contracting parties. They even go beyond this, recognizing as valid, and beyond question, the amendment to the Constitution abrogating slavery; and this carries consent to the legislation which ordains the equality of political rights for all classes of citizens. Nor do the Conservatives stop here. They foresee and confess that the pending amendment of the Constitution, conferring the right of suffrage upon the blacks in the revolted States, will shortly be ratified by enough of the Southern States to make it complete, notwithstanding Ohio and New Jersey have recalled their votes in its favor—recantations, we may remark, at best of doubtful legality. They see nothing in the canvass which separates them from the Republicans, except party prejudices and alienations, and hence they are ready to take a Republican hitherto of the most advanced opinions, for their standard-bearer. What they are really after is to hamper the destructive tendencies of the Democratic party in respect to financial questions, involving the national faith and the stability of the existing system of currency. They demand stability and permanence by virtue of their connection with the commercial and financial operations of the country. That is to say, they are sick of all that remains of their party, except its name, and cling to it as a spell by which they hope to exorcise the spirit of evil out of the organization itself. To us, their self-imposed task seems hopeless, as we will presently show.

On the contrary, the radical or genuine Democrats, though beaten, are not prepared to recant the principles for which they have contended, or to forego the advocacy thereof. As some sentiments have been reopened and a new and difficult adjustment attained, they are not without hope that all the essential political changes wrought during the last eigt hpregnant and momentous years may yet be cancelled, and things be restored as they were before the Rebellion broke out. Such constancy and hopefulness would be admirable in a better cause, even though destined to bitter discomfiture in the end. Great movements in political society correspond to the physical changes witnessed during the geologic cycles, in that they are never obliterated, and never go backwards. Human affairs do not, indeed, stand still, because motion is the natural condition of all things, physical, intellectual, and moral. Revolutions no more turn backward in their courses than planets do in their orbits. There may be, and doubtless are, eccentricities of movement which superficial observers fancy to be retrograde; but such conceptions are purely imaginary. The great movements of society occur under fixed and irrevocable turns, and tend continually, to a higher and grander development of national life.

The subterranean Democracy believe what they have professed, and are content to take all the chances which may befal them in abiding in the old faith. They know that a deluge has swept over the country, of which the waters have not yet altogether subsided; but they have an unshaken confidence that when the dry land shall fully re-appear it will be exactly as it was before the rains descended and the floods came, and the foundations were removed. Such faith is of the heroic sort, but is none the less doomed to disappointment.

How the conservative and radical democrats are to harmonize their disagreements or so balance them as cordially to cooperate in the attainment of a common end, does not clearly appear. Considering the case abstractly, the task of reconciling the discordant elements would appear to be hopeless. But democracy, in this respect, at least, defies all ordinary calculation. It is a rule unto itself, and such a rule as obtains nowhere else. Democrats wrangle over personal preferences, over points of doctrine, and over particular measures, but when the National Convention has pronounced judgment they wheel into line with wonderful heartiness. Exceptions to this statement have occurred, as when Mr. VAN BUREN consented to become the presidential candidate of the Free Soilers, thus contributing to the defeat of Gen. CASS, the regular nominee, and as when, at the commencement of the Rebellion, a good many democrats refused to ratify the conspiracy that had been entered into to make the democratic party the agency for overthrowing popular institutions, and establishing some form of monarchy. Other exceptions may possibly be pointed out; but at this moment, we re-call none of special prominence. It is possible that another exception may occur this year, but the indications of it are not apparent. True, the Democratic party is in a chaotic condition, owing chiefly to its undisguised sympathy with the revolt and the causes contributing thereto; owing, also, to the fact that all the issues it has made, of any considerable importance, during the last twelve years, have been decided against it, either on the battlefield or at the ballot box, or by both powers in combination. Nor have these issues simply been decided against them, but so as to admit reasonably of no review and fresh determination. They have been ultimately settled and cannot be reopened except by another appeal to the arbitrament of battle. Slavery has been abolished; first by the war power and afterwards by the civil power. The former bondmen are in possession of their rights, and these cannot be wrenched from them except by an exertion of violence that would convulse the Republic as with the throes of an earthquake.

Nor have the Democratic leaders definitely settled what policy they will adopt and proclaim. A large part of them are ready to accept as banner-bearer a Radical free soiler of a quarter of a century's standing, and to inscribe the banner with a legend that shall, in the main preserve his consistency unimpaired. This portion virtually confess that their party has no distinctive ground to rest upon. They might as well fall in with the Republicans at once. The other portion of the Democrats seem inclined to tie to dead issues, and be buried with them. These are controlled by their instincts, rather than by their judgments. Nor are they altogether even grealy mistaken, as we shall show.

Political parties, like sectarian denominations, are not best judged by the platforms or creeds they profess, but by those instincts or tendencies which lie back of doctrinal formularies and are superior to them. A creed may be very good, considered speculatively; but if the church holding it does not produce men of superior piety and morality, it must be conceded that there is something in that particular denomination more vital than its Confession of Faith. The Democratic party necessarily professes devotion to the doctrine of the equality and inalienability of political rights; but if it is found pandering to the vilest forms of caste, of privilege, of disfranchisement, it is palpable that the platform is powerless and that something very different is potential. That men claiming to be Democrats do not see the discrepancy between profession and practice, and blush on account of it, must be taken, not so much as evidencing their sincerity as the depth and blackness of the passions and prejudices by which they are swayed.

The same principles of analysis hold good in respect to the Republican party. It often fails, in profession, to realize the expectations of its most advanced and clear-sighted members; but its animus is correct, and in the end, no matter how slowly, it is certain to gravitate to the right point.

This method of discrimination is of special value in transitionary epochs like the present, when old foundations have been broken up and it has become needful to lay new ones. What the respective parties have done in the past, is the surest index of what each will do in the future. The Republican party will follow the instinct of Freedom; the Democratic party, the instinct of Slavery. Each will, indeed, be modified by existing circumstances; but the old leaven will determine the character of the new fermentation.

MR. PENDLETON SOLD.

The Republican journals at Erie and Harrisburg concur in the opinion that "the Democratic press of Pennsylvania are swinging around the circle slowly toward CHASE." This opinion is very likely to be correct; certainly it is being plausibly supported by the indications on all sides. The Pittsburgh Post of the 20th gives prominence to a Washington special, announcing that "there is no disguising the fact that CHASE has loomed up and has rapidly gained within the past few days. On the other hand, the friends of PENDLETON are sanguine." It is only a few days since the Post discredited the idea of CHASE becoming the candidate as absurd in the extreme. The same journal reiterates the "pardonably coarse" declaration of a delegate, in the County Convention which repudiated the Post's advocacy of the dead issues, that "the fight is to be made on niggers and greenbacks," and, re-asserting the idea of "a white man's government" which the New York World has shown to be so foolish, it begins to sing small on its old Pendletonian theme, saying that "greenbacks mean that there must be one currency for rich and poor—that taxation shall be equally distributed—that the public faith shall be maintained—that the letter and spirit of the bond shall be preserved inviolate. "Only this and nothing more." Who, two weeks ago, would have credited the possibility of such a conversion as this indicates, from demanding that the bonds be redeemed in greenbacks and nothing else, to advocating the inviolate fidelity of the bonds in their letter and spirit? Is our neighbor, discarded by the Allegheny Democracy, feeling its way toward GRANT and the Republican platform? If this be really the case, we will use all good offices with our party to shorten as much as possible its probationary trial. But it is more likely that the miracle of this conversion is to be explained by the great light which has of late fallen upon Democratic eyes, swinging them around the circle from PENDLETON to CHASE. And the scales of colorphobia will also fall off in due time, under the apostolic ministrations of Mr. CHASE, and the convincing facts presented by the New York World.

Of the CHASE platform which we printed in our last, a Washington dispatch says the proof was revised by the Judge before it was given to the public, the word "wealth" being substituted by him for the word "property," as it was first written. It is further stated that "this last modification of his financial views is expected to reconcile the Western anti-bond and anti-bank men. He has been informed that his financial views are now the only points successfully urged against his nomination. This revised platform is understood here to indicate his willingness to have the bonds taxed, and banking, under the National act, made free to all comers, and greenbacks substituted for bank notes."

The New York World, which editorially affects to throw cold water upon the movement, allows a reporter to say in another column of the same issue that "if the feeling for CHASE among the rank and file increases as rapidly in other sections as it does in this vicinity, it will have gained such a headway by the time that the Convention assembles that his nomination will be a necessity."

It is quite evident that the "feeling" is making equal headway among the Democratic rank and file in Pennsylvania, and that the PENDLETON press concur in it, or will prudently succumb to its influence. They begin to feel the truth of the pungent remark made by the Louisville Courier, which, having been accused of lukewarmness toward PENDLETON, admonishes the friends of the latter that they have made him the representative of a faction instead of the exponent of the views of the Democratic party.

We may therefore, expect at any moment, to see the "Democratic editors of Western Pennsylvania," whose meeting in this city the other day resolved in favor of PENDLETON and greenbacks, stampeding over to CHASE in a body.

THE CONNELLSVILLE RAILWAY.

We learn from the Fayette Standard that, at a meeting of the Finance Committee of the Baltimore and Ohio Railway, on the 10th inst., that Company subscribed one million of dollars to the Connellsville road, two individual members of the Committee adding ninety thousand dollars thereto. It has been determined to complete the work without regard to the action of the Fort Wayne or Pennsylvania Central Companies, the delay hitherto having been occasioned, the Standard says, "by the failure of the President of the Pittsburgh and Chicago Road to meet Mr. GARRETT, to consummate the proposed connection between that and the Connellsville Road, the failure of which it was generally supposed would entirely defeat the Connellsville Road." Mr. GARRETT, of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, is further reported as saying to Mr. STEWART, of Uniontown, that:

> "We do not anticipate that the arrangement between the Pennsylvania Central and Fort Wayne Roads, will affect in the slightest degree our determination to build with great rapidity the Connellsville Road.
> "Pittsburgh and the excellent connections which already exist at that city, and those that can readily be established, independent of the Fort Wayne Road, will secure a very large and valuable traffic."

The Standard thinks there can be no difficulty in obtaining subscriptions for the second million of Connellsville bonds, and concludes an article which abounds with indications of its confidence in the speedy accomplishment of this project, with a compliment to a distinguished citizen of Fayette, as follows:

> "Mr. Stewart is entitled to credit for his long and continued efforts to consummate this connection between the east and west, by the waters of the Potomac and Youghiogheny, having obtained the first appropriation of thirty thousand dollars for this object in June, 1823—forty-five years ago, and has been laboring against the efforts of the Pennsylvania Central to defeat it ever since. The thanks of the people along the line of the Connellsville Road are especially due Mr. Stewart for his last successful effort, at his advanced age, to secure the completion of this great work, for which he has labored for nearly half a century."

MR. JOHN A. MCCLERNAND, of Illinois, who did not win too much honor by his military exploits, has, very naturally, joined the corporal's guard of gilt-edged brigadiers, feather-bed colonels and bomb-proof captains and lieutenants, ex-sutlers and disgraced army contractors, in opposition to Gen. GRANT. The papers of that State say that the recruiting is very slow for the Bummer's Brigade.

DEATH OF R. A. GEORGE, ESQ.

It is with more than ordinary sorrow that we announce the death of R. A. GEORGE, Esq., Cashier of the Farmers' Deposit National Bank, which resulted after a prolonged pulmonary disease, at the residence of his parents in Allegheny, on Saturday evening. Mr. GEORGE was a worthy representative of the young and active business men of this city, and was universally regarded as one of the ablest financiers and most correct accountants in this end of the State. In every respect he was a self-made man. Entering at the early age of fourteen into the service of the Farmers' Deposit Company, he so faithfully discharged his duties as to win the confidence and approval of its directors and stockholders to such an extent as to cause his election to the responsible and arduous position of Cashier at the age of nineteen. For the proper discharge of the duties of this position, which he creditably filled up to his death, he developed rare executive and financial ability, and the present high standing of the bank, which classes second to no other institution of like character in the city, is in large measure due to his untiring energy, promptness and fidelity. In business he was courteous, obliging and accommodating; in private life kind, genial, affectionate and confiding; in both capacities winning the respect and esteem of all with whom he came in contact. His early death will be deeply deplored by every member of the active business community with whose best interests he has been so long and closely identified, and by a large number of admiring friends and acquaintances in the circle of private life.

THE New York World of the 20th says "that Mr. CHASE will not receive a single vote from any delegation," for the reason that he has not pledged himself to stand by the ticket if his claims are overruled. Per contra: A Washington journal of the 19th states that "it is reported, on good authority, that Mr. CHASE has written a letter to be read in the Democratic National Convention, placing himself squarely on any platform that the Convention may determine; but urges on members of the Convention that negro suffrage be recognized and universal amnesty be demanded." If this report be true, it supplies the necessary and only condition insisted upon by the World. We have no doubt that the report is correct, and that the World's article from which we quote was written with a private knowledge of it. Neither the World's managers, nor any one else who is familiar with Mr. CHASE'S political career, could ever doubt that he would surrender any principle or abandon any friend to promote the schemes of his individual ambition.

"WE do not suppose that the supporters of Mr. PENDLETON will insist upon the incorporation of his greenback theory into the platform," says the New York World of the 20th. Of course this will exactly suit the "Democratic editors of Western Pennsylvania" who, if all reports are true, are ready for their cue to go back on the "unanimous resolutions" for PENDLETON and greenbacks which they adopted the other day.

CONVALESCENCE.

After a disease has been conquered, there is still the weakness that it leaves behind it to be removed. Convalescence is a tedious affair. If the enfeebled and flaccid muscles, the shattered nerves, the thin and watery blood could speak, they would cry for help. In too many cases such help as is given them is not of the right kind. The fiery stimulants of commerce do harm. They kindle a temporary flame, which is a mockery. Their effect passes, and the last state of him who uses them is worse than the first. Not such is the effect of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. There is no drawback to its tonic properties. It has been found THE GREAT MEDICINE OF THE AGE for sustaining and bracing up the enfeebled constitution no matter how much debilitated—as it not only bestows strength, but soothes the nervous system and allays all excitement of the brain. While this excellent preparation possesses such effective properties, it is perfectly safe and is agreeable to the taste. Attempts have been made to rival it. They have failed. Can it be necessary to say why they have failed? Ask the recovered dyspeptics, bilious sufferers, victims of fever and ague and nervous subjects who have experienced its effects what they think of it. Ask them, and be guided by what they say. As a household medicine it is available at all times in cases of indigestion; bilious and other fevers, and all diseases arising from an impure condition of the stomach or liver.

CURE OF FISTULA.

DR. KEYSER: I write to thank you for your kindness and scientific management of my disease, for which I called to consult you some time in January last. You will remember that I had a complication of diseases, which finally ended in a terrible fistula, which I had been advised to "let alone," on account of a harassing cough, which it was feared might fasten it on my lungs. I knew that the peculair mode of treating diseases like mine was by a cutting operation, which, if successful at all, would naturally throw the disease upon the lungs or some other vital organ, on account of the suddenness of the cure and the immediate check to the discharge, which I believed was a salutary provision of nature to get rid of some morbid condition of the system. I feel perfectly satisfied that your method of treatment, purifying the system, and local applications to the fistulous part, must cure, if anything could, without cutting, which I find it did, and I am happy to report myself well in every particular, with sounder and better health than I have had for years. I would also add that the applications you made were almost painless, and have left me a new man, with all the energies and vigor of restored health.

Yours, gratefully, I—— O——.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

FOUND.

That after repeated trials of other remedies, Roback's Stomach Bitters, Blood Purifier and Blood Pills are the best medicines extant to cure the diseases for which they are recommended.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

PILES.

There is no medicine in use so efficacous as Dr. Roback's Blood Purifier and Blood Pills for the permanent cure of Blind or Bleeding Piles; they strike at the root of disease, thereby removing the cause.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

TEMPERANCE.

There is, perhaps, no one thing that has done so much to promote the cause of temperance as that gentle stimulating tonic, Roback's Stomach Bitters; they strengthen and invigorate without producing the ill effects of alcoholic stimulants.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

LIVER PILLS

Are Pills that have a direct and powerful action on the liver, and relieve any inactivity or congested state of that all important organ upon which depedds the whole process of digestion. The importance, then, of procuring a Pill that shall have such direct action without the ill effects of mercury, is manifest to every one; such Pills are Roback's Blood Pills; they are warranted purely vegetable, and can with certainty be relied upon, and are safe at all times.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

INDIGESTION

Is but another name for Dyspepsia, and the parent of many ills. Roback's Stomach Bitters taken in wine-glass-full doses, directly after each meal, will surely effect a permanent cure. Do not take our word for it, but try them.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

NIGHT MARE

Is one of the many diseases of which Dyspepsia is the parent. To effect a cure persons should avoid hearty food at night, and take a wine glass-full of Roback's Stomach Bitters on retiring to bed.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

RENOVATE.

During the Spring months it is one of the regular household duties to renovate, and, in the multiplicity of other duties one's own self is, in a great measure, overlooked; thousands of valuable lives might be prolonged, and many doubtless saved from premature graves by thoroughly renovating the system with Dr. Roback's Blood Pills, Stomach Bitters and Blood Purifier.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

MELANCHOLY

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

WHO SELLS THEM?

The Agents for the sale of ROBACK'S BLOOD PILLS, STOMACH BITTERS and BLOOD PURIFIER are all Druggists everywhere.

FOR SALE.

500 ACRES OF WHITE PINE AND HEMLOCK TIMBER LAND, situated on Black Lick Creek, Buffington township, Indiana county, Pa., 9 miles from Nineveh Station, on the Pennsylvania Central Railroad, and about 60 acres of cleared land, under good fencing. On the premises are erected one Grist Mill, with 2 run of burrs and 2 run of stones, all complete and in good running order. One Saw Mill, in complete order, cutting 3,000 feet per day.

One dwelling house, two stories high, with 12 rooms, 40x42 feet.

One dwelling,	28x40	feet,	8 rooms.
One "	18x26	"	2 "
One "	18x26	"	4 "
One "	18x26	"	2 "
One "	24x26	"	5 "

One Stable, 20x24 feet, 16 feet high; Blacksmith Shop and other outbuildings. This land is underlaid with stone coal and iron ore, and it has plenty of never-failing springs of water, besides the creek running through the entire premises, and will be sold cheap and on easy terms, to a good man with a little money.

10 LOTS ON BEDFORD AVENUE, each lot 20 by 100 feet, on which is erected four two-story frame dwelling houses, of 6 rooms and hall each. These lots embrace a full square of ground, fronting 200 feet on Bedford avenue, and bounded on each end by a wide street, with an 18 feet alley in the rear. On the premises is a pump of lasting and excellent water, and the surface of the lots is level and needs neither filling nor grading to prepare them for building purposes, and being in a section of the city where property is increasing very rapidly in value, make them desirable for an investment, especially as the present houses rent for enough to pay a good interest on the sum asked for the whole proper y. Call soon on the undersigned and secure a cheap, safe and paying investment.

Also, A FARM OF 160 ACRES of good land, situated in East Wheatfield township, Indiana Co., Pa., 90 acres of which is cleared land, in good cultivation, 40 acres being in excellent meadow. The improvements are a two-story frame dwelling house of 4 rooms, a frame bank barn, 36x60 feet, with stabling underneath, and other outbuildings, all in good repair. It is in a good neighborhood, convenient to schools, churches, stores, &c., and will be sold very low for cash or approved securities.

Also, a RIVER BOTTOM FARM of 75 acres, 19 miles from the city, in Elizabeth township, Allegheny county, Pa., on the Youghiogheny river, one-half mile from Elrod's Station, on the Connellsville railroad; near churches, schools, stores, &c., in the flourishing villages of Boston and Green Oak. The improvements are a two-story brick house of six rooms, hall and cellar, a good frame bank barn with stabling underneath, and other outbuildings; a well of good standing water at the door, and several standing springs of water on the farm, and an orchard of 700 trees of selected fruits of apples, cherries, pears, peaches, quinces and grapes. This property being located near the line of the railroad, within one hour's ride of the city, makes it very desirable for gardening or a dairy farm; it is also a good and beautiful location for country homes near the city, lying immediately on the river, on the opposite side from the railroad. The West Newton Accommodation and other trains on the railroad afford certain and frequent opportunities of daily communication to and from the city. Will be sold as a whole or in lots of one acre or more, to suit purchasers.

Also, A FARM OF 173 ACRES, situated in St. Clair township, Westmoreland county, Pa., near the line of the Pennsylvania Railroad at Houston Station. The improvements are a two-story frame house, with six rooms and good cellar, a frame bank barn 40 by 60 feet, and other outbuildings. There is on the place a young apple and peach orchard; 120 acres cleared land, divided into fields of convenient size, a large portion of which are well set in clover and timothy; the residue of said tract covered with good timber. It is well watered and underlaid with coal and limestone, and is convenient to churches, schools, stores, mills and blacksmith shops. A real good bargain is offered in this excellent farm; and with it will be sold all the personal property on the premises, consisting of horses, cows, stock cattle, hogs and poultry, harness, gears, wagon, plows, farming implements and household and kitchen furniture. Together will be sold very low and on easy terms, to a responsible purchaser.

Also, a desirable and very fertile Tract of Land of 158 ACRES AND 25 PERCHES, in Elizabeth Tp., Allegheny county, Pa., on the line of the Hempfield railroad, and one and one-half miles from the Connellsville railroad at Suter's Station. On this farm are 400 acres of superior white oak timber, which alone is now worth one-half the price asked for the whole tract. The improvements are a log house, frame barn, good fencing, and an apple orchard of good fruit. It is well watered and underlaid with limestone and flag stone of a superior quality, with stone coal for the use of the farm.

Also, The best FARM in Fairfield township, Westmoreland county, Pa., of 250 ACRES, about six miles south of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad at Bolivar Station. The improvements are two large hewed log dwellings; one of the largest and best frame barns in the township; two apple orchards, in good bearing condition; corn crib, wagonshed and other outbuildings. The whole farm is under a high state of cultivation; fencing all in first rate order, and the land of the best quality of limestone soil, about 200 acres of which is cleared and the residue of the tract in good timber, such as white oak, rock oak, hickory, walnut and beech. This property will be sold very cheap and on good terms, as the owner wishes to engage in other business. For particulars enquire of

G. H. TOWER, 164 Fourth Street.

FOR SALE.

TWO HOUSES AND LOT on Carroll street, Allegheny. This property will be sold low, as the party is about leaving the city, and wishes to dispose of the property before removing.

SAW MILL, TWO DWELLING HOUSES, TWO BARNS, with good FARM, and about 800 acres timber land. This property will be sold low. Cash $2,500—balance on time to suit buyer.

FARM OF 130 ACRES, will be sold for twenty dollars per acre. Improvements comfortable frame house and good barn; 50 acres of the land clear.

FARM OF 180 ACRES, near the line of railroad; very well located for raising stock; improvements are good and substantial; 100 acres of the land in meadow and grain.

CITY PROPERTY.—Will sell a good brick house, containing five rooms, at Sixteen Hundred Dollars, and would rent for the amount in six years.

A LARGE LOT OF GROUND, having a river front, and very convenient of access.

TANERY, convenient to the city, and having a well established custom or local trade connected therewith; a good dwelling and forty acres of land.

FOUR LOTS in Sharpsburg, near the railroad; would make a good coal yard.

HOTEL FOR SALE.—That fine Hotel property, situated at the Blairsville Junction, containing fourteen rooms and the necessary outbuildings, with three acres of garden and fruit trees. This well located hotel will be sold low, as the proprietor wishes to retire from business.

FOR RENT.

Power and a large Room and Yard for rent, in a good location. Will be rented for short or long time.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, June 20, 1868.

Gold opened firm on Saturday at 141¼ and closed at 140¾. The large short interest created in anticipation of lower rates during nexr month, makes parties anxious to cover at any decline of ½ per cent. and upward. Speculators still believe in higher rates, but their power is broken by not being supported from outsiders of the gold room. They have no longer the courage to run up the premium 5 and 6 per cent for fear to be trapped in their own schemes. The absencce of any political excitement keeps off the mass of small specultors, who formerly always bought when the market was at its highest point. In a commercial point of view, it seems very reasonable to believe in a rise of the gold premium, so long as we are importing at the rate we have been doing during the last two months; but before there will be any scarcity of gold again in the market, our cereals and other produce of the soil will be ready for shipment, and commercial paper will take the place of coin shipments.

Government securities are rather quiet speculators keep off from the market in hopes of seeing lowor quotations made in Europe, when a decline would follow here immediately, and bonds might be bought cheap enough to enable them to engineer a rise during the early part of next month, when some forty or fifty millions of dollars will be disbursed for dividends and interest. In anticipation of this advance few bonds are now offered in the market; the close of the time of converting Seven Thirty bonds of the June issue may bring out larger amounts, as likewise the fixed idea of people less acquainted with financial affairs that the result awaits the first of July to either earn the full interest on their bonds or make a equitable exchange for ther securities.

The stock market is rather languid, and but little disposition is manifested to buy at present prices. The small advance in Cleveland & Pittsburgh Railroad stock was based on the 2 per cent. dividend to be declared quarterly, but whether this advance can be maintained is doubtful, althounh the road is doing a profitable business. Speculators hereabouts were deceived so often that many of them got discouraged.

Business dull and money quiet easy.

Closing quotations as received by Ph. R. Mertz, were as follows:

Gold, 140¾; 1881 bonds, 117¼; 1862 5-20s, 113¾; 1864 do, 110⅞; 1865 do, 111¾; new, 1865 and 1867, 113¾; Ten Forties, 106⅝; Seven Thirties, 110.

New York Central, 134¾; Erie, 69; Miceigan Southern, 90¾; Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 90¾; Northwestern, common, 65; Preferred, 77¼; Chicago & Rock Island, 105¼; Pittsburgh & Fort Wayne, 111¼; Ohio & Mississippi Certificates, 29¼; Merchants Union Express, 27¼; Western Union Telegraph, 37⅝; Corydon, 34; Quicksilver, 25; Quartz Hill, 1,20.

—The defalcation in the Hide and Leather National Bank, at Boston, is ascertained to be $575,000—a much larger sum than was expected at the time of the time of the discovery of the defalcation. Time and investigation usually shows this result. For fear of impairing the banks credit the managers almost invariably understate losses at the beginning.

—The bill legalizing gold contracts, it is thought, if it becomes a law, will pave the way to a speedy and yet not forcible resumption of specie payments. Thereafter every man who wishes to place his business on a solid foundation—every merchant, manufacturer, and dealer will naturally sell or buy for gold instead of paper. The whole sale business of the country will, in a short time, be carried on entirely in specie; and this will be found so convenient, so certain, so definite, that we think this measure will do much to revive business, as well as to relieve the whole commerce of the country from the gambling element which has been a curse to it.

—Says the Philadelphia Ledger, of Friday: Notwithstanding we see money quoted at New York as low as 1, 2 and 3 per cent., we are informed that very considerable amounts of commercial paper are daily sent from that city to the banks here, where it is discounted at 6 per cent., and in no one instance, that we have heard of, at less. The low rates quoted at New York are among bankers and brokers for large sums on call, usually from Saturday over Sunday. Money is evidently abundant and cheap, but not especially low for business purpeses. On call it is still quoted here at 4 to 5 per cent., but bank discounts are uniformly 6 per cent. A good deal is used in carrying stocks.

—The London Times has the following allusion to the settlement of Mr. Jas. McHenry with his creditors:

It is stated that arrangements are in progress between Mr. James McHenry, the contractor for the Atlantic and Great Western Railway Company, and his creditors, to the effect that they will accept 20s. in the pound by installments, of which 6s. 8d. is to be paid within two year, and that creditors to the extent of £2,000,000 out of the aggregate of £3,600,000 have already agreed to the offer. One of the creditors for about £5,000, who objects to the deed, has taken out a summons in bankruptcy, but there is said to be no doubt that the deed will be legally completed by the assent of nearly all the large creditors, so as to prevent any proceedings in bankruptcy taking effect.

Gold, 140¾; U. S. 6's, 1881's, 117¾; 5-20's, 1862, 113¼; 5-20's, 1864, 110⅞; 5-20's, 1865, 111¾; 10-40's, 106⅝; 5-20's, January and July, '65, 113⅞; 5-20's, January and July, '67 114; June 7-30's, 109⅞; July 7-30's, 109⅞; May Comp., 1865, 119,-30.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, June 20, 1868.

CRUDE—The Crude market has been very unsettled and irregular during the past week; in the early part of the week it was very firm and considerably excited, and sellers appeared to have it all their own way. On Thursday, a reaction set in, and the advance established during the first part of the week has been almost entirely lost: Then spot oil sold up to 13c, and at one time there were but few, if any, below 13¼c, and even 13½c. On Thursday it sold down to 12¾; on Friday at 12½c, and to-day, it went down still further, the only sales effected being at 12. The decline was fully as sudden and unlooked for as the advance, and so far as we can see, there was just about the same ground for the one as there was for the other. Antwerp and the other foreign markets have varied but very slightly, while so far as we can learn, there has been but little change in the production. The sales reported were as follows: 250 bbls, on spot, at 12c; 500 to arrive on Valley on cars at 12c, and 1,000 each for July and August, seller's option, at 12½c. The decline at Oil City has been fully as marked as the decline here; we are cognizant of sales having been made there during the early part of the week at $5,40, while to-day, it is reported, there were offers to sell at $4,75—a decline of 65c per barrel. At no time this year has the market been so sensitive as at present and during the past few weeks, and what is true of the market is also true of dealers.

REFINED—The market for bonded oil has also been irregular and considerably excited, but the fluctuations have not been so violent as in Crude; the advance was not so great, and, as a consequence, the decline has been smaller, and, besides, there was not, to the same extent, that panicky feeling which was the leading characteristic of the Crude market during the greater part of the week. The sales reported to-day were very small, two lots of 500 each for July and August, the last half, at 32½c. Spot oil, in the absence of sales, may be quoted at 31c, and the same figure will answer for the last half of June. Compared with the early part of the week, there has been a decline of fully half a cent; but, so far as we can learn, there is but little oil offering at the decline, and, notwithstanding prices are a shade lower, the market is, apparently, steady, and there is no disposition manifested to make any further reduction in order to effect sales. Sale of 500 barrels Benzole for the last of July, seller's option, at 15c.

ARRIVALS—The arrivals of oil reported to-day were as follows:

Bly & Pinkerton	50	Jas. Wilkins	240
Total			600
Total Receips for the week			10,710

New York Dry Goods Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, June 20.—The weather is quite hot. Trade is more active and the market decidedly firmer for all fine Brown and Bleached Muslins; certain styles of heavy Brown Sheetings are also firmer, stock A, for instance, which sold as low as 16¼ by package are now firm at 16½c, and so are Lawrence C; these goods must advance. All the leading houses, not only here but in the principal cities of the West, have been buying up the cheap lots of goods in the market recently, and with the stoppage of the machinery the tendency of prices is upward. There has been a great run for Great Falls J Brown and prices have risen from 13c to 14c. Laconia E and Exeter A have also advanced from 13 to 14c Lawrence E have risen from 14 to 15c, Russet D advanced to 15c and sell quick, Gibbon 4-yard Brown Sheetings have risen from 12½ to 13c. The Continental C yard-wide Sheeting is a beautiful article and sells quick at 15, as do 40-inch of the same Brand at 16c. The Red Bank Bleached Muslins are ½c higher and sell quick at 12½c.; the Amoskeag A have advanced to 17½c, Cabot A to 16c, Greene H 7-8 width to 11c, Harris 7 8 to 11½c; Hancock A sells readily at 15c. Gloucester Shirtings, which have been selling as low as 1 shilling, have risen to 13¼c. Gloucester Mourning Prints are in steady good request at 11c for plain and 12c for black and white. All light styles of Prints are being closed out low, but dark colors are held firm at 13½c.

Cleveland Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CLEVELAND, June 20.—Flour — double extra red winter $12a12,50; double extra spring $10,60a11; prices of country brands irregular. Wheat—sales 1 car No. 1 red winter at $2,24; No. 1 spring held at $2,15. Corn—sales 10,000 bu, sellers for the last half of July at 92½c. Oats—sales of 1 car at 71c. Rye, market dull and inactive, and held at $1,75a1,80 for No. 1. Barley market nominal. Petroleum quiet and lower; refined in bond held at 28a28½c; free at 38 a39c.

Baltimore Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

BALTIMORE, June 20.—Flour; nominal. Wheat; very dull, and unchanged. Corn; firm; sales of white at $1,12a1,14, and yellow at $1,10a1,12. Oats; dull and unchanged. Rye; nominal. Provisions; unchanged.

Chicago Cattle Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CHICAGO, June 20.—Beef cattle dull and drooping; small sales to city butchers. Hogs firm at $6,50a6,75 for light to extra heavy.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

The Chase Movement.

Our Washington correspondent reports one of the rumors of the capital, last night, to the effect that President Johnson has told Chief Justice Chase that if he is nominated by the Democrats he will support him, and that the latter said he would accept such a nomination if the Democratic platform was in accord with the principles he held. It is also said the President told the Chief Justice that Hancock was his second choice and Hendricks his third. Pendleton he will not support.—N. Y. Tribune.

The return of Chief Justice Chase to this city has revived the interest in his proposed nomination by the New York Convention.

It is understood that arrangements are now in progress for the formation of a coalition Presidential ticket of Conservative Republicans and Democrats, with Mr. Chase at its head, on the basis of opposition to Radicalism and Centralization, and acceptance of the accomplished events of the war.

It is claimed by Mr. Chase's friends that he can carry more than half the Southern States, and cause a defection from the Republican party in the Northern States that will elect the ticket and secure a full majority in Congress.—Wash. Cor. N. Y. Advertiser.

NEW YORK, June 17.—The movement for the nomination of Chase is apparently growing stronger daily. Fernando Wood, Barlow, Belmont and other prominent Democrats favor Chase, and are said to have nearly all the Tammany and Mozart Democrats with them.

John Morrissey favors Pendleton, but is not generally supported by the muscle men. The indications are that the roughs will use physical influence, if needed, to defeat Pendleton.

Secretary McCulloch.

It is believed here that the Senate will not confirm Groesbeck as Secretary McCulloch's successor in the Treasury. A Washington dispatch to an evening paper implies that the resignation of the latter is asked by the President. Such, however, is not the case. You will remember that I wrote you a few weeks since that the Secretary was tired of the place, and would certainly tender his resignation soon, no matter what might be the result of the impeachment trial. So he wrote to one of his friends here in April. He will probably go into business on Wall street with a prominent firm, which suggested a partnership to him over a year ago. I believe that Secretary McCulloch is now in heartier sympathy with the Republican party than he was a year ago, and being very susceptible he has been very unhappy under the political attacks made upon him.—Wash. Cor. Chicago Journal.

THE evidences are plenty and thickening on all sides that the Democracy intend making a war of great bitterness in the approaching Presidential contest, against all the Republican candidates. Rebel cesspools are being carefully raked for calumnies against the Republican leaders. The Copperhead press insist that "Grant used up more men than Lee." Well, he won more victories than Lee. A good mechanic is judged by his completed work. Another line of assault is the attempt to array the Jews against Grant on account of an army order excluding from our lines certain parties, among whom Jews were named. There are no men in the country who, at the time, more heartily indorsed everything that the Union commanders deemed necessary for the welfare of the Union cause, than did the Republican members of the Jewish faith in this city and throughout the country. There are no better nor more enterprising citizens in the North-west than are many of our Israelites, and they are sure to be true to the Republican cause in November.—Chicago Republican.

THE Democratic candidate for the Presidency suits us to a dot. As one of the distinguished soldiers in the war for the Union, he has a record of which any loyal man might be proud. As an uncompromising opponent of the cruel war waged against the South, he deserves the support of every man who is faithful to the traditions of the party. As the originator and founder of greenbacks, he not only sustained the credit of the nation, but enabled us to build up a solid superstructure of honorable debt. As the abolisher of debt, credit, greenbacks and honor, he has a great work yet before him. As a believer in negro rights and universal suffrage, he has shown his devotion to the most advanced principles of freedom. As a supporter of the doctrine that this is a white man's government, and an admirer of the Dred Scott decision, he holds out large hopes of peace and harmony in the future. No one should refuse to vote for him without thinking seriously over his varied merits.—N. Y. Times.

The Chicago Journal says Judge Chase's "private letter" means that he "will accept the Klu-Klux nomination, upon any platform, though he would be gratified, for the looks of the thing, with a suffrage plank. This is miserable business for the Chief-Justice of the United States to be engaged in. It is bad enough to have him change his political principles, but to draggle his gown through Copperhead mud puddles in order to obtain their favor, places him in palpable contempt with every right-thing man. The Chief Justice should respect the office he holds, even if he has none for himself, or the people, who are becoming so thoroughly disgusted with him."

THE Democratic party has not the power of Paul who shook off the viper which fastened on his hand, feeling no harm. It is trying to shake off the viper of secession and repudiation; but it cannot do it without feeling harm. The viper may let loose if Mr. Chase is nominated; but such secession will result in the disintegration of the Democratic party. A correspondent whom the World calls "a staunch Democrat" writes that paper: "Everything depends upon the result of the Democratic National Convention next month. We are standing upon a volcano filled with destruction, and ready for an explosion."

IN THE whisky cases recently tried at Richmond, Va., before Chief Justice Chase, it was proved that four distilleries had agreed to pay $30,000 per annum for the privilege of shipping five-sixths of all the whisky they might distill free of government tax. This money was paid to the internal revenue officers of the district, and the amount of tax from which it purchased exemption was $250,000. These revenue officers were convicted and sentenced to fines varying from $2,000 to $10,000, and imprisonments varying from one to two years. This and the Callicot case show how whisky can be sold for less than the tax of $2 per gallon.

PETITIONS from over one hundred business houses of Philadelphia were yesterday presented to Congress, praying for the consideration of the tariff act laid aside by the last Congress. Our manufacturers and business men are proud of their advanced position in the world of trade, and have shown their thorough understanding of American interests by resolving that the wealth of the country shall enrich her own citizens rather than the aristocrats of Europe.—Press.

Murderous Affray.

At Russellville, Tennessee, Monday, at 6 A. M., Colonel McCarty, ex-Confederate, and Major Lawrence, commanding the United States troops stationed at that post, met and renewed an old quarrel. Just as the up-train from Memphis arrived at the station Major Lawrence, in self-defense—McCarty having struck at him—drew his revolver and fired at McCarty, the ball entering his leg below the knee. McCarty, in return, fired three shots at the Major in quick succession. All three balls made wounds, and the third a mortal one, having penetrated the stomach, passing out through the spine. Major Lawrence was insensible, and as good as dead when the train left the depot.

Just at the close of the war it appears that Major Lawrence met McCarty in a photograph gallery, the latter having on his full Confederate uniform. The Major ordered him to go home and remove it, and upon McCarty refusing to comply, a guard of soldiers took him and compelled him to change the Confederate uniform for citizen's clothes. No renewal of the ill-feeling thus engendered had occurred since that time until Monday morning, as narrated above. McCarty was taken charge of by the Sheriff.

THE New York correspondent of the Philadelphia Bulletin says: "There are more Japanese costumes in Broadway than you can shake a stick at, unless you are very skillful in this manly recreation. With back-hair high in air, little patches of green or white just over the bumb of veneration, broad ribbons floating from behind and before, dresses built in the Yokohama style, the parasol held pretty much as the idiotic 'supes' in the theatre hold their wooden swords at the 'present,' the women sail up and down the shady side of the popular thoroughfare, a never-failing source of wonder to their country cousins, and of most unmitigated contempt to each other. The scornful look, the impudent, brazen look, with which every woman regards every other woman in the street, is a something greatly to be deprecated. Whence comes it? If two men should look at each other in passing, as two women do, there would soon be an unpleasantness between them; and should every man follow the fashion, it would require 100,000 policemen to keep the peace in Broadway alone."

THE PEABODY EDUCATIONAL FUND.—The annual session of the trustees of this charity commenced in New York Tuesday. Dr. Sears, the general agent of the fund, reported that he had been received, in his visit to the Southern States, by the prominent citizens there, in the most cordial manner, and a most hearty co-operation is everywhere evinced towards educational development. The extreme poverty, however, to be met with in the Southern country is painfully evident; and though there is a noticeable desire on the part of the principal citizens to assist in the object for which Mr. Peabody generously established the fund, yet their limited means prevent them from assisting as far as they desire.

THE SELECTION OF A SITE FOR THE CAPITOL.—It may be an interesting fact to many to know that Alexander Hamilton's financial scheme secured the location of the national Capitol at this point. Germantown, near Philadelphia, was originally selected; but the southern delegates desiring the Capitol further south, jealous then of northern influence, as they have ever been since, secured a reconsideration of the vote. Hamilton's financial scheme then was in want of two votes; the South gave these votes, and the present site was secured. Washington favored Georgetown as being at the head of navigation and the terminus of inland navigation.

SECURITY AND COMFORT FOR THE TRAVELING COMMUNITY.

J. B. HARRIS' SAFETY FIRE JACKET,

Car Heater and Moderator,

For SMOKE AND HOT AIR FLUES, dispensing with the use of Stoves and Fires in or about the Passenger or Baggage Cars, with the attachment to graduate the heat to any temperature that may be desired without the possibility of firing the car or cars to which the Jacket may be attached.

Having obtained of the United States Letters Patent for a Safety Jacket which is warranted to resist the most intense heat that may be applied to it in the position and purpose for which it is intended. It is a sure protection from accidents by fire, originating from defective flues, or where iron pipes are used as conductors for smoke or heat. It is applicable to all pipes that may become overheated, and is warranted to give perfect satisfaction where wood or other combustible material may be placed in close proximity thereto. I am now ready to apply my invention to stores, dwellings, factories, ships, steamboats, railroad cars, &c., wherever pipes as conductors are made dangerous by being overheated and security desired. I will sell, on application, rights to manufacture or to use the above invention; also, territorial rights, to such as may wish to engage in selling privileges, either by State or county.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Daily Prayer Meeting—From 12 M. to 12:30 o'clock at the Methodist Church, Fifth street, next door to GAZETTE office.

Funerals.—We observed five funeral processions yesterday, all going to the Allegheny Cemetery.

Returned.—Hamill and Coulter returned to this city yesterday. Hamill arrived in the morning and Coulter in the afternoon.

Pleasant.—A heavy shower of rain fell yesterday evening, which had a tendency to cool the atmosphere, making it quite cool and pleasant.

Driving Over Pavement.—Wm. H. Davis was fined five dollars and costs, by Mayor Drum, on Saturday, for driving over the pavement in the Diamond.

Committee Meeting.—A meeting of the Republican County Executive Committee will be held at the Court House, Wednesday, the 24th instant, at two o'clock P. M.

Disorderly.—Anna E. Butler made information before Alderman Thomas, charging her husband, Zachariah Butler, with disorderly conduct. A warrant was issued for his arrest.

Boy Drowned.—Friday evening Lewis Richter, son of John Richter, 465 Penn street, was drowned, by falling from a flat in the Allegheny river. The body has not yet be recovered.

Going to Europe.—Mr. Wm. Semple Esq., of Allegheny, will start for Europe on a pleasure trip in a few weeks. He will go by the Inman line of steamers, and expects to be absent about a month.

Assault and Battery.—Alderman McMasters on Saturday issued a warrant for the arrest of Hunter Wilson, on an information for assault and battery, preferred against him by Sarah Spence. The parties reside in Temperanceville.

Disorderly House.—Thomas Smith made information on Saturday before Alderman McMasters against John Tyler for keeping a disorderly house, for prize fighting purposes. A hearing in the case will take place at ten o'clock on Wednesday.

Receiving Stolen Iron.—John Fitzgerald, a junk dealer, was arrested Saturday and taken before Mayor Drum charged with receiving stolen scrap iron, the property of the Pittsburgh and Fort Wayne Railroad Company. The Mayor held him to bail for his appearance at Court.

Personal.—Hon. Galusha A. Grow, Chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee, has been in the city for several days arranging matters for the campaign. Mr. Grow is an active politician, a man of great ability and a shrewd and energetic worker in all his undertakings, and is, we think, "the right man in the right place."

Lost.—A little girl about ten years of age was brought into the Allegheny Mayor's office on Saturday afternoon by a boy, who said he had found her on the Perrysville road outside the city. She was unable to give any information, further than that her name was Annie, and the Mayor took her in charge until her parents could be found.

Removed.—The fire plugs in Birmingham, which have heretofore occupied a position near the center of the streets, are being removed from Carson street and placed at the curb near the street corners. The Pittsburgh and Birmingham Passenger Railway Company, we understand, are having them removed at their own expense.

Keeping a Gambling House.—H. S. Hager made information before Alderman Taylor against David and Elijah Hall, charging them with keeping a gambling house.

The same prosecutor also charged David Hall with committing an assault and battery upon him. A hearing has been appointed in each case for Wednesday, June 24th.

Strawberry Festival.—A festival for the benefit of the Ross street M. E. Church will open this evening in Lafayette Hall, and continue for one week. An abundant supply of refreshments has been provided, and the ticket of admission entitles the holder to a dish of either ice cream or strawberries without additional charge, which is rather an unusual arrangement. We hope there will be a large attendance.

New Invention.—Capt. Wm. Mays, Secretary of the Seventh ward School Board, has invented a school chair, having a spring back and seat board, which makes it much easier to sit upon than those commonly used. Besides this advantage it folds up when not in use, allowing a clear passage way between the desks. The new Seventh ward school house, now in course of erection, will be furnished throughout with these chairs, Demolished.—A barouche belonging to Mr. McClean, of the firm of S. McClean & Co., bankers, was literally demolished Friday evening by coming in contact with a lumber wagon, on Liberty street, near B. L. Fahnestock & Co.'s Lead Factory. Mr. McClean had been out riding, and was retiring home when his horse frightened at the whistle of a locomotive and "shied," bringing the barouche in contact with the wagon. The driver and Mr. McClean were both thrown out, but fortunately escaped injury.

Death of a Bank Cashier.—R. A George Esq., Cashier of the Farmers Deposit National Bank, departed this life at the residence of his parents in Allegheny city, on Saturday evening. He was about twenty-eight years of age. At the early age of fourteen he entered the Bank, and step by step advanced to the position of Cashier, to which he was elected at the age of nineteen. His funeral will take place to-morrow at ten o'clock as per announcement under our obituary notices.

Felonious Assault and Battery.—John Stumpf made information before Alderman Thomas, on Saturday, charging James Graham and his sons, Thomas and William, with felonious assault and battery. He alleges that they attacked and beat Mitchell Woolfort in a most brutal manner. The accused came to the Alderman's office and gave bail for a hearing, and denied any knowledge of the affair whatever. Stumpf also made information against Thomas Graham for surety of the peace, for which Graham was held for a hearing.

Body Found.—Yesterday afternoon about three o'clock, a Mr. Vandegrift, who was rowing on the Ohio river, below the Marine Railway, discovered the body of a boy floating on the water, which he secured and brought ashore. The Coroner was notified and had it removed to the undertaking establishment of Alex Aiken, where it remains awaiting identification. It is supposed to be that of a boy who was drowned while bathing in the vicinity a few days ago, a notice of which appeared in the Gazette of Saturday.

Coroner's Inquest.—An inquest was held Saturday morning by Alderman Irwin, on the body of John Sharkey, killed on Friday at Hays and Bros. Coal Works, in Baldwin Township, by a piece of slate falling upon him while at work, an account of which was published in Saturday's Gazette. The accident occurred at 9 A. M., death ensuing some hours afterwards. Dr. Ure testified to the skull being fractured in two places. No other injury was visible. Deceased was twenty eight years of age, and unmarried. A verdict in accordance with the facts was rendered.

Grant and Colfax Club Organized in Birmingham.

An adjourned meeting of Republicans of Birmingham was held in the Town Hall, Saturday evening, for the purpose of organizing a Grant and Colfax Club. Mr. D. C. Ripley occupied the chair and Will M. Hartzell officiated as Secretary.

The Chairman stated the object of the meeting in a few earnest remarks. It was a difficult matter, he said, to get up enthusiasm, or to awaken the Republicans to activity, at present, the enemy not having taken the field or shown colors; but it was well to be prepared for action when the proper time came. He read a report of a Committee appointed at a previous meeting, as follows:

The Committee appointed at a meeting of Republicans held on the 9th inst., to prepare a plan for the organization of a "Grant and Colfax Club," beg leave to report:

1. That the officers of the Club consist of a President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer.

2. That an Executive Committee of —— be selected, to whom shall be entrusted the general supervision of the affairs of the Club.

3. That a Finance Committee be selected.

The Committee deem it unnecessary to submit a more detailed plan, as other necessary matters can be more satisfactorily arranged after organization, in which the they would suggest there be no further delay. Much will depend upon the earnestness of the Executive Committee, in connection with the officers of the Club, in carrying out the objects aimed at. Work must be done in order to secure victory at the October and November elections. We must have thorough organization. The borough must be canvassed, the name of every voter obtained and recorded, and every Republican must be brought to the polls on election day. Not one must be allowed to remain away from over confidence in the success of our candidates, or from any other cause. Allegheny county is expected to roll up a handsome Republican majority, and Birmingham must do her share.

Hoping that wisdom and harmony may prevail in the Club now about to be organized, and that old Birmingham may give a good account of herself in October and November next, the Committee respectfully submit the above suggestions.

WILL M. HARTZELL,
ERNEST G. KREHAN,
JOHN P. BEECH.

On motion of Mr. Charles Evans, the report was accepted.

A committee, appointed at the previous meeting to suggest names for a Borough Executive Committee, submitted, through Mr. Evans, a list of some forty names, an equal number from each precinct of the borough. The report was accepted.

The Chairman stated that having filled the position of treasurer to the retiring Borough Executive Committee, he desired to make a final report. He gave the amount received and expended by him, and stated the campaign would be commenced with a clean record—there being no old debts to pay and no balance in treasury. Report accepted.

The report of the Committee on Organization of a Club was then taken up, discussed and adopted, after having been amended, on motion of Mr. E. Moye, increasing the number of Vice Presidents to six.

It was suggested that the organization be further deferred, inasmuch as the attendance was not as full as desirable. The meeting, however, decided to proceed with the organization, and a motion to go into an election for officers prevailing, the following were chosen:

President—D. C. Ripley.

Vice Presidents—James McDonald, Henry Meisterfelt, John Redman, first precinct; W. C. Aughinbaugh, Georg Duncan, Dr. F. Taudte, second precinct.

Secretary—Will M. Hartzell.

Treasurer—Sellers McKee

After some remarks concerning other matters pertaining to the club, it was concluded to defer until another meeting the appointment of necessary committees, and Messrs. E. G. Krehan, Edward Moye and James McDonald were appointed to act in conjunction with the President of the Club in the selection of suitable persons for such committees.

On motion adjourned till Saturday evening next, to meet in the same place, the Town Hall.

Serious Accident—The Result of Carelessness.

A serious accident occurred on Butler street, Lawrenceville, on Saturday about one o'clock, by which two children were severely, and one of them perhaps fatally injured. Charles Hoffman and William Schimmelfinnig were driving a horse and buggy down the street at a rapid rate and ran over a little boy and girl, aged respectively five and seven years, nephew and niece of Mr. Jacob Widlow, a hotel keeper in Lawrenceville. The children were crossing the street at the time, when the horse came upon them so suddenly that it was impossible for them to get out of the way. They were both knocked down by the horse which stepped upon the boy, injuring him internally, and the wheels of the vehicle passed over the legs of the little girl, bruising and lacerating them in a terrible manner, but fortunately no bones were broken. The children were removed to the residence of their uncle, who it appears is their guardian, their parents being dead, and Drs. Hanna and Bovinger attended to their injuries. The men who were the cause of the accident, instead of stopping the horse and returning to see the injury they had done, drove on in a reckless manner. They were followed into the city by an officer, arrested and taken to the Mayor's office, and Mr. Widlow came in shortly afterwards and made information charging them with felonious assault and battery, upon which they were held to bail in the sum of five hundred dollars each for their appearance at the Mayor's office this morning at nine o'clock for a hearing. The charge is a serious one one, and if convicted the punishment very severe.

Such accidents are the results of fast and reckless driving, and it is really strange that they are not more frequent. The Mayor informs us that he will punish every one to the fullest extent convicted before him of the offence, and we are inclined to believe that the Court will not be lenient with such offenders when brought before it.

The Late Sculling Match.

The Philadelphia papers join in denouncing the recent races, or attempted races, between Hamill and Coulter, as grand aquatic fizzles. It is to be sincerely regretted that no fair trial of the rowing abilities of the contestants was arrived at, unlooked for accidents preventing both efforts for a race. The last award of the referee occasions considerable comment, but its honesty, in accordance with the rules made to regulate boat racing, cannot be questioned. It is pretty generally understood that Hamill will retire from the waters, never again to participate in a race for money or the championship. This course was resolved upon more than a month ago, and in retiring Coulter becomes his acknowledged successor to stand against all comers as the champion of American waters. The wagers have nearly all been paid over by the stakeholders, the Coulter backs acquiescing with much good grace. Mr. Tom Bailey, of the Second ward, is reported to be the heaviest winner in the city, netting nearly five thousand dollars. He has consistently stood by Hamill in all his successes and reverses, and his present luck is a fitting reward for his generous quality of sticking to his friends in cloud and in sunshine. There were other heavy wagers paid over in the city on Saturday, as the betting had been very spirited on the two previous days. It is not probable that any other race can be arranged between Coulter and Hamill, so the affair may be said to be all "over."

WILLIAMSPORT.

Its Location, Scenery, Churches, Public Buildings, Manufactories — Dickinson Seminary—U. S. Court—Judge McCandless—Marshal Rowley—District Attorney Carnahan—Jury List, Pittsburghers, Etc.—Gov. Geary—Commission to Locate Lunatic Asylum—"Grand Hop"—Route of Travel, Etc.

Williamsport is a charming spot during the summer months, and, indeed, we might truthfully say, it is an attractive place to visit at any season of the year, owing to its beautiful location, its fine society and picturesque surroundings. The West Branch sweeps along the edge of the city, while in the distance Bald Mountain looms up in its grandeur. The older part of the city is much like the usual cramped-up style of old fogy times of crowding the houses together, and narrow streets. But the West end is laid outwith that liberality which governs the most modern built cities. Each of the private residences are built in the centre of a large plat of ground, and are of great architectural beauty, while the grounds which surround them are arranged in a very tasteful manner.

Beautiful as it is for a place of residence, it has special advantages for manufacturing purposes, and capital is gradually concentrating for the purpose of manufacturing on an extensive scale. The grand sweep of railroads touching this place has also had much to do with the development of its resources. Lumber is a specialty here, and it is a focus of power in trade circles. Among the praiseworthy features of this beautiful inland city is its handsome church structures and public buildings. The churches indicate the culture of the people, and the public buildings are not, as is too frequently the case, a huge pile of brick and mortar, without symmetry or beauty, but combine both in the most approved forms of these modern days. Here, too, is located Dickinson Seminary, under the control of the Methodists, though well patronized by other denominations. The President, Dr. Mitchell, a brother-in-law of John Moorhead, Esq., a merchant of your city, is a fine educator, and also enjoys quite a State reputation.

Right in the heart of the West end, among the palatial residences, is located the "Herdic House," one of the most elegant hotel buildings in this country. It is surrounded with beautiful grounds, laid out with much taste, and is a favorite resort for croquet parties. Each side of the building is favored with capacious balconies, and there is a liberality in design, throughout its rooms and other arrangements, which is rarely found in city hotels. It is not surprising that it is constantly crowded with visitors, and is a favorite spot for travelers to stop off for a brief sojourn. We believe the house is owned by a wealthy merchant named Herdic, after whom the hotel is called. It is, however, under the immediate management of George Murray, Esq., who is admirably adapted for the position, and is quite a favorite for the signal manner in which he conducts the establishment. Many Pittsburghers will bear testimony to this fact.

The great event, however, just now is that the United States Court is holding its annual session. Judges Grier and McCandless are both present pushing business as rapidly as possible. In bygone years the holding of the United States Court here was said to be a mere pastime, but now it is a substantial matter of fact, owing to the number of cases brought before the Court, arising from the infringment of the revenue laws, counterfeiting, &c. At almost every term heavy land cases are tried. We simply mention in passing that we doubt very much if any place outside of certain large cities, can boast of a more elegant Court House structure, combining more excellencies, than this one does.

Judge Grier seems to possess the same vigor of mind as heretofore, but his inability to walk about without help, owing to his feebleness, awakens fears in the minds of his friends that he may ere long be incapacitated for the duties of the bench. The familiar form of Judge McCandless, of our city, fills the picture of a dignified Judge. His noble presence and urbane manners impresses every one. Shortly after his induction into office, the duties of this Court assumed a magnitude and importance that never was thought of. With the enactment of revenue and bankrupt laws, and the criminal cases growing out of the infringement of the former, the duties of District Judge involve great labor and responsibility. Hardly had the May term closed at Pittsburgh, until the Court convened at this point. At its close, the semi-annual term of the Erie Court will begin. The administration of Judge McCandless is so well and favorably known in your city, and so generally approved, and his decisions sustained by the higher Court, that no words of commendation are necessary from us. The Judge's amiable wife and daughter are here, and Mr. S. C. McCandless, the clerk of the District Court, of course, is at his post, filling the duties of his office in a very creditable manner.

It is always a pleasant thing for a Judge to have associated with him in Court duties a capable and pleasant Marshal. This is especially the case at the present time, the office being filled by Gen. Rowley, whose military record forms a bright page in his history. His long residence in Pittsburgh, in business and civil positions, before the war, admirably qualified him for the duties of the Marshalship of this District. His correct deportment, attention to business, and sincerity of manners, makes him a great favorite. Major G. W. Murphy, his Deputy, is also here, industriously engaged in office duties. He is quite efficient, and popular for his genial manners.

The District Attorney, R. B. Carnahan, Esqr., adorns his office. His close attention to his work, industry in sustaining the dignity of the Government, and excellent poise in judgment, commends him to all who have intercourse with him. A professional man like Mr. Carnahan, with education, culture and good habits, could not help being successful.

The Grand Jury has been in session four days, considering bills for the infringment of revenue laws, etc., comprising a venire of about twenty persons. Judge Dana, of Wilkesbarre, is foreman, and Wm. Bakewell, Esq., of Pittsburgh, clerk. Judge Dana attained quite a good name in the army during the late war. Many of the members are from Allegheny County, and contiguous counties, namely: Speaker Graham, Col. J. H. Stewart, J. M. Kirkpatrick, Jared M. Brush, W. K. Hart, W. H. Campbell, A. G. Henry, J. Herdman, W. H. Kincaid, J. G. McCandless, D. O'Neil, W. J. Gilmore; and David Sankey, of the Lawrence county Journal, New Castle, and W. Alexander, of Monongahela City.

In the panel of petit jurors we notice J. J. Donnell, G. M. Blackstock, H. F. Marker, J. A. Sholes, J. N. Kean, Geo. Gerst, Casper Gang, George Strain, B. B. Coursin, J. R. Hendrickson, W. H. McCreary, Robert Clugston, J. F. Bennett, J. N. McClowry, W. F. Robb, W. J. White, Abram Garrison. These are all from Allegheny county. We notice jurors also from Beaver, Mercer, Crawford, Erie, Westmoreland, Lawrence and other counties. The venerable Judge Shaler is here from Centre county. His two daughters, Mrs. Thomas Bell and family, Mrs. J. M. Brush, Mrs. W. H. Kincaid, Miss Hart, and other ladies are sojourning at the "Herdic House." Last evening a grand "Hop" brought together quite an array of beauty and exquisite adorning of the fair ones, in which our Pittsburgh ladies bore a conspicuous part.

The community was thrown into an excited state on Tuesday night by the arrival of Governor Geary, and the Commissioners appointed by the Legislature to select a site for the erection of the Northern Lunatic Asylum. The Commissioners consist of Drs. Reed, of Dixmont, Curwen, Kirkbridge and others. Senator Russell Errett and other well known public persons, by request, accompany the Commission. The firemen turned out in a body, and the citizens en masse, to greet the Governor and the party on their arrival at the Herdic House. The Governor spoke briefly in relation to the object of the visit, and was followed by John M. Kirkpatrick, Esq., and others. During the interval the band discoursed sweet music. As the night wore away the crowd retired. Wednesday morning the Governor, Commissioners, and others, were conveyed in carriages across the river to the vicinity of Bald Mountain, to view grounds for the proposed hospital. This morning the party left for Danville, and from thence they visit other points in the tier of counties hereabouts.

The opening of the Bald Valley Railroad from Lock Haven to Tyrone, intersecting the Pennsylvania Railroad, makes the distance not much over two hundred miles. By this means the distance has been much shortened over the old round by Harrisburgh.

Grand Closing Out Sale at the Masonic Hall Auction Rooms of Smithson, Vanhook & McClelland, Nos. 55 and 57 Fifth Street.

There is in store for the prudent bargain seeker during the whole of the present week unexampled opportunities for the purchase of seasonable and first class dry goods at prices away down below those prevailing anywhere else in the country. Messrs. Smithson, Vanhook & McClelland, who have so long made a specialty of general dry goods have resolved to withdraw from that branch of business entirely, in order that they may exclusively devote their attention to their largely increased shoe trade, auction and commission business. The stock of dry goods which they have now in store, and which is to undergo the greatest possible sacrifice imaginable, is very full and complete, embracing dress goods of all descriptions, Balmoral skirts, sun shades, parasols, toilet quilts and spreads, table and Irish linens, checks, tickings, oil cloths and linen table covers, flannels, cassimeres, cloths, gents clothing, linen coats, shirts, ladies straw goods, and numerous other lines of goods too tedious to mention. The firm purchased all of their large stock at the heavy auction, bankrupt and Sheriff's sales in the East, and now as they have concluded positively and peremptorily to close out the entire stock to quit that department, the reader can safely rely on receiving such unparallelled bargains as never before prevailed in this city. In order to afford proper accommodation to the army of purchasers who will visit the store during the week to procure the bona fide bargains offered, the usual furniture auction sales will be suspended this week and day and evening will be devoted to the accomplishment of the one grand purpose of completely closing out every item of the finely selected stock. While the retail patrons will be favored with such great inducements dealers and all who buy to sell again will be afforded rare opportunities to buy themselves rich in all sincerity and truth. Remember the sale commences to-day at the well known auction salesrooms, Masonic Hall, Nos. 55 and 57 Fifth street.

Found Drowned—Inquest.

The body of Henry Royce, an employe in a rolling mill in Brownstown, was found in the Monongahela river near his residence in East Birmingham Saturday morning. He came home from his work early Friday evening, and after resting a short time started to the river in search of his boys, who had gone off in that direction. He was seen a short time afterwards sitting on a coal barge, and about nine o'clock in the evening, he having been previously missed, his clothes were found in the barge. He is supposed to have gone into the water bathing, and to have been accidentally drowned. Deceased was about thirty-eight years of age, and leaves a wife and several children. Search was was made for his body Saturday morning and it was discovered under the barge. Alderman Irwin, acting Coroner, held an inquest Saturday evening, when the jury returned a verdict of accidental drowning.

Explanation.

We stated a few days ago that Mayor Drum had fined Mr. Semple, the dry goods merchant, six dollars and fifty cents, five dollars for city fine and one dollar and fifty cents for costs, for the offense of a boy employed by him, throwing dirt on the North Common without his knowledge, a violation of a city ordnance. Mr. Semple states that the maximum fine of five dollars was imposed for, as the Mayor said, insinuating that it was done for the costs, as Mr. Drum offered to remit the fine of five dollars provided that the insinuation was withdrawn.

The Mayor states, in explanation, that the fine would not have been imposed, as this was the first case under the late resolution of Councils, had it not been for remarks, as stated above, made by Mr. Semple, and that he offered to remit the fine if the offensive remarks were withdrawn.

Cement Drain Pipes.

A very superior article of drain pipe is that known to the trade as the "Hydraulic Cement Drain Pipe," which is manufactured with much care at the Cement Pipe Works of Messrs. R. B. & C. A. Brockett, No. 220 Rebecca street, Allegheny City. These pipes are made under patents, of materials which harden by time and exposure, and become indestructible; will conduct water any distance, as pure as when it leaves the fountain head, and are as lasting as the hill-side in which laid; are smooth inside, therefore not apt to get obstructed; easily laid, more durable, and all things considered, much cheaper than any other. They will commend themselves to all persons needing anything in this way, and the manufacturers respectfully ask an examination into their merits.

Sudden Death.

Daniel Rothbert, a discharged soldier, and inmate of the Soldiers' Home, in the Ninth ward, died very suddenly on Saturday. Rothbert was a tobaccoist by trade, and had been engaged to go to work for Mrs. Hays, No. 820 Penn street, this morning. He visited the house yesterday and complained of being unwell. He retired to a room and laid down in bed, where he was found a short time afterwards, dead. Dr. King, of the Hospital, gave it as his opinon that deceased had died of apoplexy. Alderman G. M. Irwin, in the absence of the Coroner, held an inquest on the body, and the jury returned a verdict in accordance with the above facts. The managers of the "Home" took charge of the body and will have it decently interred.

Benefit.—Officers Rook and Havis, and doorkeeper Couch, at the Old Theatre, will take a benefit to-morrow night. These gentlemen are all deserving and worthy, and their many friends will have an opportunity of evincing their appreciation of their efforts to do their duty in the position they occupy by filling the "Old Drury" from top to bottom on this, the occasion of the benefit. Mr. Joe Sefton and lady have volunteered their services for the occasion, and an excellent bill is in preparation.

Fined.—Mayor Drum on Saturday fined William Moorhead five dollars on an information preferred against him by William Paul, Jr., Superintendent of the Water Works, for opening the fire plug on the corner of Beaver and Jackson streets, Second Ward. The City Councils passed a resolution a few days ago, instructing the Mayor to impose a fine on all persons found using the fire plugs without permission from the Superintendent, and hereafter these instructions will be stringently enforced.

Lost Star.—Officer McCreaty, of the Mayor's police, lost a silver police "star" Friday evening. Any person finding the same will confer a favor on him and be suitably rewarded by leaving it at the Mayor's office.

Remarks on Consumption by Dr. Keyser.

Everywhere the admission is free that consumption is a formidable disease. It sweeps into untimely graves millions of human beings every year. With all the arts and appliances of medicine; with all the skill that human genius and investigation can bring to bear upon the subject, there is no general remedy that will cure the disease. That is, there is no specific that will go directly to the lungs, and heal and obliterate the sores and ulcers that are eating out their substance. One thing is clear to our mind, and we believe it will be conceded by most men who have reflected on the subject, and that is, that if the stomache and digestive organs are doing their work properly, there will be no tendency to lung or any other disease. When we look upon a patient with pale and dejected looks; with withered veins, hollow cheeks and sunken eyes; with cough and spitting of pus, hectic fever and chilliness, wasting of flesh, night sweats, wandering pains in the breast, swelling and burning of the hands and feet, spitting of mucous streaked kwith blood, are at debility and loss of muscular energy.

We cannot be mistaken. These are plain premonitors and almost constant symptoms of a terrible disease; whose gradual but constant steps are steadily sapping all the avenues of life. We have cured many persons after all these symptoms have been developed, evidences of which exist all over this city. The food going to the nourishment of such a person is either of an improper kind, or else the stomach has failed in its work to fit it for the reparative purposes which the natural functions demand. The body goes to decay for want of proper or properly prepared material to support the natural waste and the exhausted energies of the system. Bread and meat and wholesome fruits are of very little use when supplied to a stomach whose functions are wasted and whose powers will not concoct them into healthy blood, out of which even the very nails and hairs of our heads are made. We know well enough that the moment the stomach and assimilative organs are restored, that health and vigor will flow with mathematical precision to every point where it will be most needed. We know that in the pure blood will be found a richer balsam than any in Nature's most recondite arcana, and as its globules are roled along by the impetus given to it by the propeling power of the heart, here and there in their transit, one or more of them stop in their way and attach themselves to the exhausted and languishing parts; anxious to be restored and leaping with the new life which it has imparted in its way. It will be seen that we regard consumption more as a disease of the blood than of the lungs; that is, as having its origin in an impoverished state of the blood, and that if we can restore the blood to a healthy and plastic condition, we can cure the lungs without doubt. The pus and mucous which clog up and choke the cells of the lungs will have to give place to the new material furnished for their renewal. These are dead matters which ought to be carried out of the system, and which, if not carried out, will rot and decay the portions with which they come in contact.

They cannot remain in it when their place has been supplied by fitter material. We have laid a good deal of stress, in our articles on consumption, on the proper kind of food. The importance of the right kind of food is as much to be looked to as the right kind of medicine. Thousands of persons would get well by a new dietary without a grain of medicine, the food being a matter for direction on the part of the physician as much as anything else. It is well known to most intelligent persons that medicines furnish no nutriment. Some that bear the name of medicines do, but we are speaking of those which strictly belong to the other class. These medicines, so-called, heal, stimulate, quiet or aid the failing organ or function. Nothing more. For instance; if the stomach is out of order, tonics and right diet will soon bring it into working order. When it is once brought into a healthy state it will make healthy blood; the sick man will be brought into condition, and then sore lungs or sores anywhere will be healed and the empire of health will be resumed.

A Franklin, Pa., Bookstore.

Messrs. Davis & Echols, successors to Smith, Davis & Co., opposite the Court House, Franklin, Pa., have one of the finest and best stocked book and stationery stores to be found outside of Pittsburgh or in Western Pennsylvania. They keep up with the times, and constantly present their numerous patrons with a splendid assortment of all the works of standard authors, new publications, Sunday School Library books, (Union, Methodist, Presbyterian, etc.,) teachers' class books, minute books, reward books, hymn books, &c., which they are enabled to sell at as reasonable prices as can be obtained in the larger cities or from the publishers. They deal largely in stationery, wall papers, window shades and general goods in that line, and keep constantly on their counter the leading magazines and literary publications of the day, together with the GAZETTE and other Pittsburgh dailies. To our readers in that section of country we cheerfully commend this firm as young gentlemen eminently worthy a large share of public patronage.

"Onward, right onward,
Into the valley of Death,
Rode the Six Hundred."

But larger, by hundreds multiplied into millions, than the doomed band who rode to swift destruction, in Tennyson's poem, is the great cavalcade of unhappy men who are rushing to untimely graves, followed by the gaunt spectre Dyspepsia. This is all wrong, and should cease. Plantation Bitters, the great Stomach Pain Killer, cures Dyspepsia, Heartburn, Headache, Vertigo, Dullness, and all symptoms of kindred character, as if by magic. For Languor, Lassitude, Great Weakness and Mental Depression, they have a most wonderful effect.

Testimonial from Hon. John Covode, Member of Congress.

For more than a year I suffered inconvenience from a constant sounding in my left ear. On the 21st of May I applied to Dr. E. S. Aborn, at 134 Smithfield street, Pittsburgh. He relieved me at once, and from that day to this I have had no difficulty of any kind. Truly,
6t-d It-w. JOHN COVODE.

Valuable Business Property.—Tuesday, June 23d, at 2½ o'clock P. M., on the premises, will be sold by auction that valuable business property known as the Pittsburgh Fruit House Building, being Nos. 2 and 4 St. Clair street. The lot fronts fifty feet on St. Clair street, and extending back one hundred and ten feet along Duquesne Way to an alley. Smithson, Vanhook & McClelland Auctioneers.

Sale of Real Estate at Hoboken Station.—The sale of building lots at Hoboken Station, on Western Pennsylvania Railroad, was a perfect success. The sale was conducted by the well-known auction firm of Smithson, Vanhook & McClelland. On Monday, July 6th, there will be another sale to close out the remaining lots.

The Best Family Sewing Machine.

In the world is Singer's New Noiseless Machine. Those of our readers who have not examined this marvel of perfection should call at the salesroom and do so at once, and be convinced that it is the best. It is very remarkable for its quietness, speed, lightness in running, ease of management, simplicity and perfection of parts. It is entirely different from Singer's old machine. The tension is really self-adjusting, running from various thicknesses of goods without change, and the feed motion is so perfect that the operator does not have to hold the goods stretched to prevent puckering even when sewing the finest Swiss or Nainsook. The hemmer is so perfect that it will make any width of hem, and fell in the most beautiful manner with less skill than is required to sew a straight seam on any other machine. The machine works equally well on the finest or coarsest materials, using all sizes of thread from the finest numbers of cotton to heavy patent or linen thread. Do not be influenced by agents of rival machines, who, by misrepresentations, try to prevent customers from examining this machine, knowing that their own will not stand comparison. Prices and terms to suit all. Straw & Morton, corner of St. Clair and Penn streets.

OBITUARY.

DIED—On June 19th, Mrs. WILLIAM ROBINSON, aged 80 years, wife of the late General Wm. Robinson.

Mrs. Robinson has resided in this vicinity for nearly sixty years, and her life has been one of philanthropic toil and labor. The writer of these lines would pay a small tribute to her memory, for she did so much for him. Her life was one of a pure Christian, being a member of the Presbyterian Church for many years; she showed how near we, too, may follow in the footsteps of a Saviour whom she constantly held up as a beacon and guide to that haven prepared for those who accept the Lord as their God. Blessed with all the gifts of family and fortune, she had the wisdom and moral courage to throw herself upon the Cross and at the feet of our Saviour, who she truly regarded as her only source of real happiness in this life and in the one to come. She was a tender, loving wife, and a kind and indulgent parent.

Anticipating death for so long a time she looked upon it as but a dark shadow through which we have to pass to unlock the mysteries of futurity.

To those left behind the loss is severe indeed, but their loss is her gain. She has gone to her treasures in the skies, and we must not wish to reverse the decree of our Father which art in Heaven. Her loss is not only felt keenly by her relatives, but likewise by the whole community, but we all rejoice that "in God's house for evermore her dwelling place may be." E. R.
